The Farthings, Station Road Much Hadham, Hertfordshire, SG10 6AX

Description

A substantial 6 bedroom, 5 bathroom detached family home with accommodation of 5500 sqft situated within this highly sought after village location. The property has recently undergone a major renovation to an exceptionally high standard and is set within beautiful gardens and includes an indoor swimming pool complex.

Location

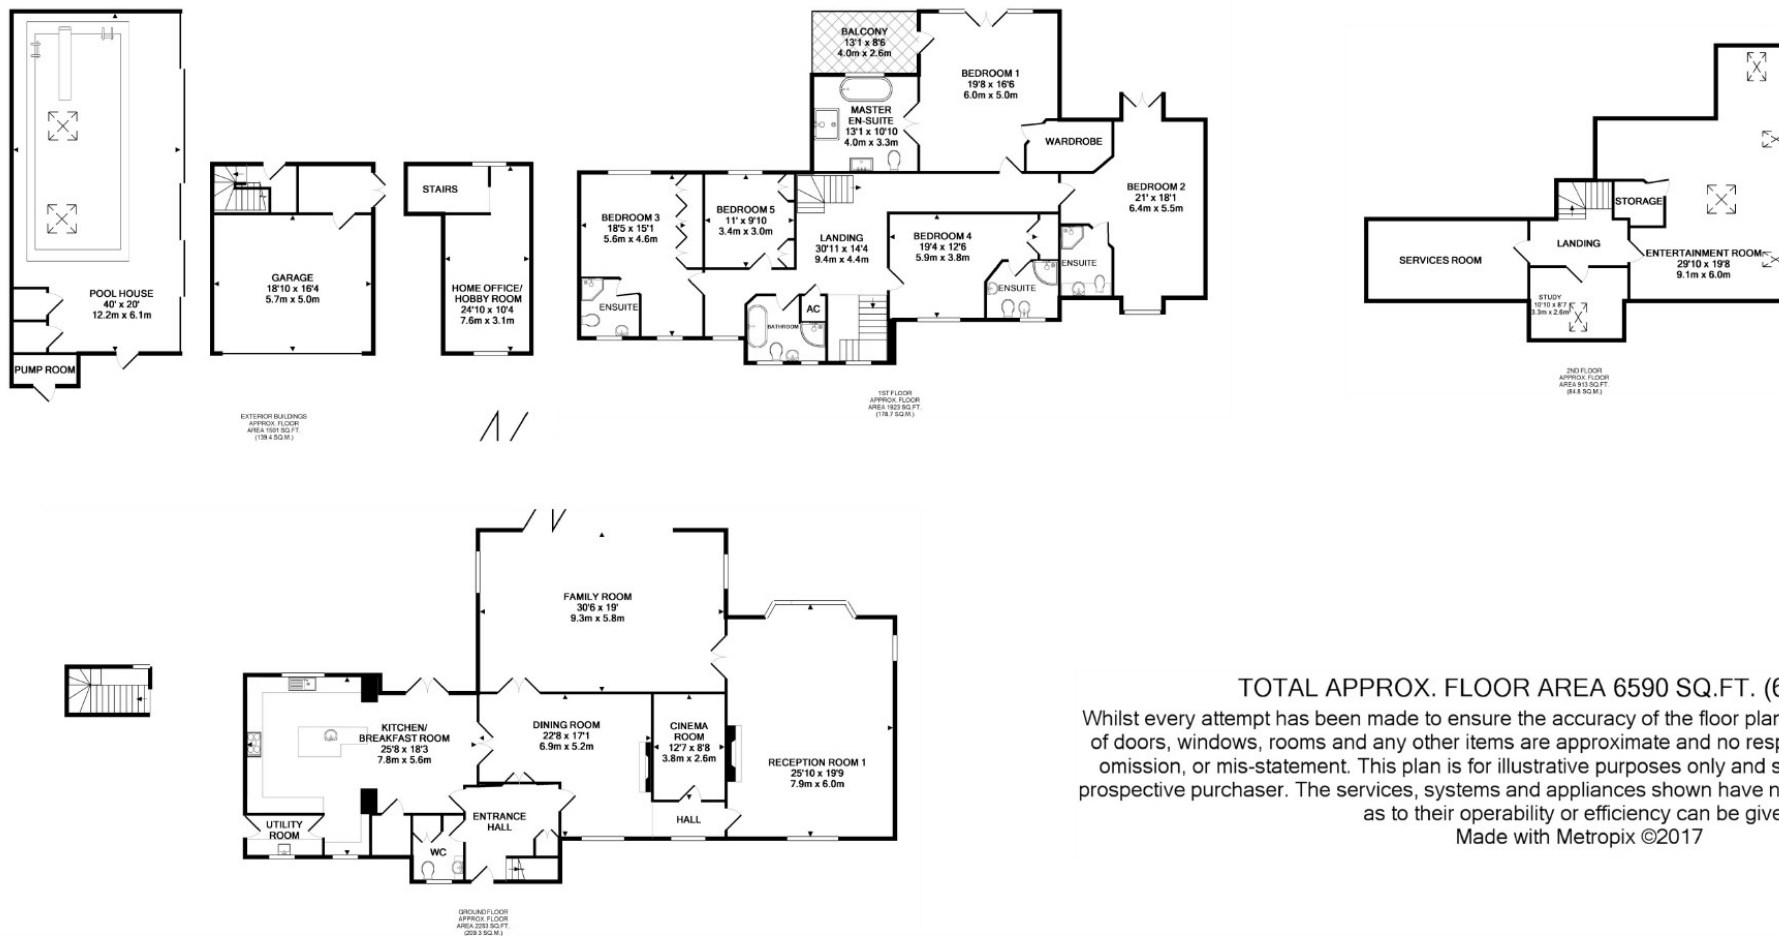

The property is located within a private road within the highly sought after village of Much Hadham. The village offers a thriving community with excellent facilities including a public house, a village shop, tennis and bowls club, along with an excellent village primary school.

The larger market towns of Bishop's Stortford, Hertford and Ware, all within easy vehicular reach, offer multiple shopping and sporting facilities, schooling for all ages and main line railway stations with commuter services to London. Vehicular access is available nearby to the A10 and the M11 is readily available on the outskirts of Bishop's Stortford, both providing access to the M25 and London to the south with the A1 and Cambridge to the north. Stansted London's third international airport is approximately 8 miles away.

In addition to excellent state schools in the area there is a choice of private schooling at Bishop's Stortford College, St Edmunds College, Heath Mount, Haileybury College, Hockerill Anglo European school and St Marys Catholic school.
