Strand Drive, TW9

The property is entered via a well maintained communal entrance with secure entryphone system and on-site concierge. A lift brings you to the top floor of the building with access to the apartment door.

The main floor of accommodation comprises a spacious entrance hall which leads to two well proportioned double bedrooms, one with ensuite, a further family bathroom complete with four piece bathroom suite, and a fantastic living room with incredible views. There is a semi open plan kitchen adjoining the reception room, as well as a dining room with access through French doors to the private river-facing terrace. Stairs lead from the hallway to a further spacious double bedroom.

The property further benefits from two allocated parking spaces, one underground and one outside the building. Residents also have access to communal gardens and direct access from the development to the Thames Path for riverside walks.
