, Hastings, TN34 1PN

The property: A beautifully presented two-bedroom second-floor apartment finished to a high standard throughout, offering a blend of modern living and period charm. Available partly furnished, the property features spacious and well-appointed accommodation, gas central heating, and an abundance of character.

The location: Situated in the heart of Hastings, Wellington Square is a highly sought-after location combining historic charm with modern convenience. This attractive Georgian garden square is just a short walk from the seafront, town centre, cafés, restaurants and local amenities. Hastings Railway Station is also within easy walking distance, offering regular services to London, Brighton and Ashford, making the area ideal for commuters. With its central position, period character and excellent transport links, Wellington Square remains one of Hastings' most desirable residential locations.
