PUGIN DESIGNED - Piece of British history and set in the very picturesque Albert Road in Ramsgate, this exquisite Regency apartment offers a unique blend of historical charm and modern convenience. Designed and built by the renowned Pugin, this lovely period home is perfectly situated on the water's edge, providing breathtaking views of the British Channel.

Spanning an impressive 614 square feet, this one-bedroom apartment features a spacious reception room that invites natural light, thanks to its south-facing orientation. The property has been thoughtfully updated with ultra-modern kitchen and bathroom facilities, showcasing architectural features that enhance its character. The kitchen comes equipped with built-in appliances, ensuring a seamless cooking experience.

The bathroom is a true highlight, featuring a Victorian roll-top suite alongside a large shower and WC, offering both elegance and functionality. New patio doors and windows have been installed, allowing for easy access to the stunning views and fresh sea air.

With gas central heating throughout, this apartment promises warmth and comfort, making it an ideal retreat. The combination of its prime location, modern amenities, and period features makes this property a rare find. Whether you are looking for a permanent residence or a holiday home, this apartment on Albert Road is sure to impress. Don't miss the opportunity to make this beautiful space your own.
