Situated in a sought after location, this beautifully presented 2 bedroom detached bungalow combines character, generous accommodation and impressive outdoor space. Offered in true walk-in condition, the property enjoys uninterrupted countryside views, extensive parking and an exceptionally spacious garage.

The accommodation comprises an entrance vestibule, a welcoming hallway, a bright lounge with a bay window flooding the room with natural light, and two well-proportioned double bedrooms. The attractive kitchen features a Belfast sink, range cooker and useful separate pantry, combining traditional style with everyday practicality. The bathroom provides an elegant retreat, complete with a freestanding roll top claw-foot bath.

Handmade stained glass windows in both the kitchen and bathroom add individuality and charm.

Outside, the generous rear garden offers distinct areas for relaxing and entertaining, with extensive decking, built-in seating, gravelled areas and established planting. Uninterrupted views across the surrounding countryside create a wonderful backdrop. An additional area of land beyond the garden also forms part of the property.

The substantial garage benefits from an electric door and a separate storage area to the rear, providing excellent space for vehicles, hobbies and storage. A driveway accommodating multiple vehicles and a car port at the front further enhance this home's appeal.

Combining comfortable living on one level with distinctive features, outstanding parking provision and an enviable outlook, this superb bungalow will appeal to a wide range of buyers.
