The property: A spacious and bright two bedroom first-floor apartment forming part of an attractive converted building.
The property offers generously proportioned accommodation throughout, including a large living space, large master bedroom, fitted kitchen with integrated oven, bathroom and a second bedroom ideal as a study.
Enjoying pleasant rear views, the apartment further benefits from gas central heating.

The location: Ideally situated on sought-after Baldslow Road, this property enjoys a convenient location within walking distance of Hastings town centre, Hastings railway station and the beautiful Alexandra Park. Set within a popular residential area, the road forms part of Hastings' Victorian expansion and offers an attractive blend of period character, green open space and excellent access to local amenities and transport links.
