59 Keston Road, London, N17 6PJ
Offers in excess of £650,000

A well-proportioned three-bedroom mid-terrace home situated in an established residential area of Tottenham. Offering practical family accommodation across two floors, the property would make an excellent choice for families, first-time buyers or investors.

The home provides three bedrooms together with comfortable living accommodation and offers good potential for buyers looking to personalise a property to suit their own requirements.

Keston Road is conveniently positioned for local shops, supermarkets, schools and public transport. Seven Sisters station is approximately 0.6 miles away, offering Underground and rail connections, while Turnpike Lane and Bruce Grove are also within easy reach. The area is particularly well served by schools, with Harris Primary Academy Philip Lane and Park View School both nearby. Downhills Park is also close to the property, providing valuable green space for walking and recreation.
