Location

Tunbridge Wells is a highly sought-after destination for Londoners, expatriates, and those looking to upsize or downsize, offering an abundance of reasons to call it home. Its close proximity to London makes it a perfect choice for commuters, but it is especially renowned for its exceptional educational options, with a wide variety of schools catering to all ages. The area's Grammar schools are particularly appealing, featuring two boys' grammars and one girls' grammar. Many of the primary schools are rated

Outstanding by Ofsted, and there is also an excellent selection of independent schools to choose from.

In addition to its top-tier education, Tunbridge Wells is rich in green spaces, with numerous parks providing residents with ample opportunities to enjoy the outdoors. The iconic Dunorlan Park, with its charming boating lake and sweeping views, is one of the area's most beloved spots. The nearby Tunbridge Wells Common offers another scenic retreat, providing stunning town-centre vistas and notable landmarks, including its unique benches.

To the south of the town lies the renowned Pantiles, a historic colonnade frequently hosting lively fairs and festivals. For sports enthusiasts, Tunbridge Wells offers a wealth of facilities, including a modern sports centre with a large swimming pool and indoor courts, as well as outdoor tennis courts in several of the local parks. The area is home to golf, tennis, and cricket clubs, ensuring there is something for everyone.

Commuting is a breeze with two stations-Tunbridge Wells and High Brooms-both offering fast, frequent services to London on the Network Southeast line. For motorists, the A21 is conveniently located just to the east of the town, providing easy access to major motorway routes. With its blend of excellent education, green spaces, sports amenities, and transport links, Tunbridge Wells truly offers the best of both.
