

Winchburgh Village

A stylish development of 3, 4 & 5 bedroom homes in West Lothian

Bellway

A reputation you can rely on

When it comes to buying your new home it is reassuring to know that you are dealing with one of the most successful companies in the country, with a reputation built on designing and creating fine houses and apartments nationwide backed up with one of the industry's best after-care services.

In 1946 John and Russell Bell, newly demobbed, joined their father John T. Bell in a small family owned housebuilding business in Newcastle upon Tyne. From the very beginning John T. Bell & Sons, as the new company was called, were determined to break the mould. In the early 1950s Kenneth Bell joined his brothers in the company and new approaches to design layout and finishes were developed. In 1963 John T. Bell & Sons became part of the public corporate scene and the name Bellway evolved.

Over 60 years of great homes and great service

Today Bellway is one of Britain's largest house building companies and is continuing to grow throughout the country. Since its formation, Bellway has built and sold over 100,000 homes catering for first time buyers to more seasoned home buyers and their families. The Group's rapid growth has turned Bellway into a multi-million pound company, employing over 2,000 people directly and many more sub-contractors. From its original base in Newcastle upon Tyne the Group has expanded in to all regions of the country and is now poised for further growth.

Our homes are designed, built and marketed by local teams operating from regional offices managed and staffed by local people. This allows the company to stay close to its customers and take key decisions about design, build, materials, planning and marketing in response to local and not national demands. A simple point, but one which we believe distinguishes Bellway.

Superb family homes in a fantastic location

Bellway Homes are delighted to present to you Winchburgh Village, a select development of 3, 4 and 5 bedroom homes in a superb location. The village of Winchburgh grew up around the fifteenth century Niddry Castle, once the sanctuary for Mary Queen of Scots after escaping Loch Leven Castle and now the grounds host the challenging Niddry Castle Golf Course.

The new Winchburgh development masterplan set in 347 hectares is the result of 10 years careful planning. The enlarged West Lothian community will benefit from more than 3000 new homes catered for by shops, schools and medical services. The Edinburgh to Falkirk Union Canal passes through Winchburgh and this will be developed to include playgrounds for children and picnic areas as well as opportunities for walking and cycling to local beauty spots such as Glendevon Pond; a home to all manners of wildlife and fauna.

Winchburgh Village is ideally situated for transport links to the major Cities in the surrounding area. Just minutes from the M9, and with a new junction planned at Duntarvie just a mile away, this allows access to Linlithgow and Falkirk to the west and eastward to the M8 to Livingston. The M9 takes you northwards to Queensferry and over the Forth Bridge via the A90 to Dunfermline. Edinburgh is just a 10 mile drive from Winchburgh Village. There is a new railway station planned for the mainline between Edinburgh and Glasgow. There are regular scheduled buses to and from surrounding places including Edinburgh, Linlithgow, Falkirk, South Queensferry and Broxburn. A network of cycle paths and pedestrian walkways offers access to shops, cafés and sporting activities in the surrounding neighbourhood.

The Winchburgh masterplan includes plans for either two or three new primary schools as well as the expansion and upgrading of the existing village schools, Winchburgh Primary and Holy Family Primary. Two new secondary schools, one Roman Catholic and one non-denominational, will be built on a shared campus on the western edge of Winchburgh Village. Until this is built the catchment area is Linlithgow Academy, just 6 miles away.

The characteristic village of Winchburgh benefits from a good selection of every day essentials such as a supermarket, GP surgery, pharmacy, pubs and restaurants.

Furthermore, with Edinburgh a stones throw from the development you have everything The Capital has to offer on your doorstep making Winchburgh Village the ideal place to make your home.

Customer Care

Our dedicated Customer Care department will ensure your move to a new Bellway home is as smooth as possible

For over sixty years the name Bellway has been synonymous with quality craftsmanship and quality homes; we are justifiably proud of this reputation and work hard to provide you with a home that meets with your dreams.

From the day a customer visits our sales centre to the move-in day we aim to provide a level of service and after-sales care that is second to none.

In recognising the close involvement our customers seek in purchasing their new homes we deliberately gear our sales hand-over process to involve our customers at every possible opportunity. Firstly all our homes are quality checked by our site managers and sales advisors. Customers are then invited to pre-occupation visits; this provides a valuable opportunity for homeowners to understand the various running aspects of their new home. On the move-in day our site and sales personnel will be there to ensure that the move-in is achieved as smoothly as possible.

Providing customer care and building quality homes is good business sense. However, we are aware that errors do occur and it has always been our intention to minimise inconvenience and resolve any outstanding issues at the earliest opportunity. In managing this process we have after sales teams and a Customer Care centre that is specifically tasked to respond to all customer complaints.

We have a 24 hour emergency helpline and provide a comprehensive information pack that details the working aspects of a new home; a 10 year NHBC warranty provides further peace of mind.

We are confident that our approach to building and selling new homes coupled with our Customer Care programme will provide you with many years of enjoyment in your new home.
