Offered with no onward chain and expecting offers in excess stands this imposing, naturally arranged three storey, five bedroom period family home occupies a commanding position on a wide, tree-lined residential street running south off Turnham Green.

The house impresses from the moment you enter, with high ceilings, period features and natural light throughout. The ground floor offers a reception and dining room, plus a modern kitchen opening onto the west-facing garden through bi-folding doors.

The upper floors accommodate five bedrooms and two bathrooms, complemented by a welcoming entrance hall, ground floor cloakroom and cellar. The property offers generous accommodation across three floors, with plenty of space for family living.

Externally, the west-facing courtyard garden offers scope for improvement, should you wish to reconfigure the existing extension to maximise the available garden space.
