Set on the doorstep of Pinkney's Green National Trust land is this charming double storey extended semi-detached character home with beautiful period features throughout.

There is a cosy living room to the front complete with fireplace and a middle room given over ideally to an office area. The extension allows for a large kitchen/diner and family area to the rear, perfect for entertaining. There are two log burners on the ground floor and the extension is fully underfloor heated too.

Upstairs are three double bedrooms, two of which have en-suites and there is a family bathroom also. The Master suite has a further bonus of a fully fitted wardrobe across one wall.

There is a private rear garden with patio area, log storage and lawn area laid to astroturf. There is also a large summer house at the end of the garden with electricity.

Benefitting from a utility room and downstairs cloakroom as well as driveway parking, this incredibly versatile spacious home has a lot to offer and is a must view!

Please Note
Under the terms of the Estate Agents Act 1979 (section 21) please note that the vendor of this property is an associate of an employee of the Connells Group.
