Abdale Road, W12

£4,800 Per calendar month

An immaculately presented four-bedroom Victorian mid-terraced home, enviably situated on a peaceful, tree-lined residential road in the heart of Shepherd's Bush. Arranged over three floors, this exceptional family home has recently undergone an extensive programme of refurbishment and extension, resulting in a beautifully designed interior that perfectly balances period charm with contemporary style. Thoughtfully reconfigured to maximise both natural light and living space, the property offers elegant, versatile accommodation finished to an excellent standard throughout. Retaining the character and charm of its Victorian origins while embracing modern family living, this is a truly special home that combines style, comfort and practicality.

Abdale Road is a desirable, tree-lined street ideally positioned for the excellent transport connections of Shepherd's Bush. Shepherd's Bush Market station provides access to the Hammersmith & City and Circle lines, while Shepherd's Bush station offers Central Line and London Overground services. The area's wealth of shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities are all within easy walking distance, including the renowned Westfield London shopping centre. The property is also conveniently located for a selection of highly regarded local schools.
