8 Field Street is a perfectly situated three-bedroom property just a short walk away from scenic views across the Menai Straits to the village of Menai Bridge beyond. Each of the three bedrooms are furnished with a bed, desk, office chair and generously sized storage furniture, with the third bedroom boasting original features such as attractive ceiling beams. The communal kitchen is modern and well-sized, fitted with a gas hob, oven, extractor fan and sink and plenty of counter space for preparing meals. The bathroom is similarly modern, as well as being bright, and is fitted with toilet, sink and shower cubicle. Finally, the living room contains two comfortable sofas, a coffee table and plenty of integrated storage in the form of a cupboard and wall-mounted shelves. Just a short walk away from the main University building, the property is also conveniently close to many local amenities available in Upper Bangor, including a supermarket, bars and an abundance of eateries.
