MIDHURST

AN AREA OF OUTSTANDING BEAUTY AND VARIETY

Situated three miles away, the thriving market town of Midhurst resides on the Surrey and Sussex border. Full of listed buildings, attractive shops and narrow lanes, it's also blessed with charming hotels, gastro-pubs and restaurants.

Discover more extensive havens of choice in nearby Haslemere and Chichester, while neighbouring Petworth has a variety of shops and National Trust parkland.

Leisure pursuits abound – from walking, cycling and horse riding in the National Park, to golf, shooting and fishing in historic Cowdray Park next door, which is also the home of English polo and the Veuve Cliquot Gold Cup. Sailors and theatre-goers will love Chichester and for racing enthusiasts, glorious Goodwood is within a short drive too.

Schooling in the area is second-to-none, with Easebourne C. of E. Primary, Midhurst C. of E. Primary and Midhurst Rother College. Along with a whole host of independent schools; including the well-regarded Conifers Preparatory School in Midhurst and the Royal School in Haslemere.

COMMUTING AT YOUR CONVENIENCE

Taking in the tranquil scenery of King Edward VII Estate, you could be miles from anywhere.

However, with the A286 running from Midhurst to Haslemere in the north and Chichester to the south, you're perfectly placed for commuting in either direction. The A272 westbound takes you to Petersfield, with Hindhead Tunnel creating a gateway to London.

Haslemere station sits on the London Waterloo (via Guildford) to Portsmouth line, trains reaching Waterloo in 52 minutes, or Portsmouth in 47 minutes. While Heathrow and Gatwick airports are only 44 and 37 miles away respectively.

AN IMPECCABLE PEDIGREE

It's a shared passion for craftsmanship, architectural heritage and innovative design that encourages our architects and designers to continuously set the industry standard.

With external finishes inspired by and sympathetic to their surroundings, you'll find just as much character and personality on the inside. Generous flowing spaces are more inviting and larger than average windows bathe every corner in natural light.

Whether you're bringing everyone together or simply prefer some peace and quiet, CALA homes have all the high specification, flexibility and clever storage to reflect your contemporary lifestyle.
