Webber Street, SE1

£484 pcm

Bright and modern 1 bedroom apartment in the sought after MyBase development. The apartment is well furnished in contemporary style, has wood flooring and an attractive private balcony. The property benefits from a 24 hour concierge and is close to Southwark Station and Borough Station.

Borough is an area teeming with history and places to discover. It's a haven for foodies not just with the historic market but with a high street packed with established independent restaurants and cafés and new options opening all the time. There are many residential options close to tube links, many on quiet streets ranging from warehouses to period conversions and new builds.

Located on a quiet street yet still highly convenient for Borough and London Bridge stations as well as the food market at Borough and the bars and restaurants on Bermondsey street.
