A stylish and elegant, split level apartment in a lovely period building. The high ceilings, period features and wood flooring throughout give it a classic feel with a modern finish. The spacious reception room and separate eat in kitchen are great for entertaining in style. The layout is well thought through, with the bedroom at the back of the building, separated from the rest of the apartment, making it a lovely, peaceful retreat.

The apartment is in a fabulous location moments from Sloane Square. It is just where Chelsea meets Belgravia, giving you the best of both areas. The shopping is second to none with the boutiques of King's Road and Sloane Street virtually on your doorstep. The fantastic shops of Pavilion Road and the farmers' market in Duke of York Square are ideal for gourmands and there is a fabulous array of top class restaurants close by. You are also close to the amazing site of the Chelsea Flower Show and world-class show jumping at the home of the Chelsea Pensioners.

All in all, this is an ideal home for someone looking to enjoy the very best of Chelsea and Belgravia.
