Maywood Crescent, Fishponds, Bristol, BS16 4AW

This attractive three-bedroom Victorian style terraced home in the Fishponds area of Bristol, offering well-arranged accommodation and good access to local amenities and transport links.

The ground floor provides two inviting reception rooms. The bay-fronted living room at the front features a fireplace, tall windows and neutral décor, giving a comfortable space for everyday relaxing. The adjoining kitchen/diner is fitted with contemporary grey units, wooden worktops with space for appliances and a dining table.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms: a generous main double, a further double and a single, all finished in calm, neutral tones. The ground floor bathroom includes a white suite with shower over the bath and part tiled walls. Throughout the property, the décor is neutral and understated, with a mix of wooden and carpeted flooring and large windows helping the rooms feel bright.

To the rear, the garden provides a useful mix of planting, shingle and lawn area.

The house is well placed for Fishponds Road, with its independent cafés, supermarkets and everyday shops, while nearby Eastville Park and Snuff Mills offer popular green spaces for walking and cycling. Several primary and secondary schools are within easy reach. Regular bus routes run along Fishponds Road into Bristol city centre and to Bristol Temple Meads, where rail services connect to Bath in around 15 minutes and London Paddington from approximately 1 hour 40 minutes.
