THE CLUB

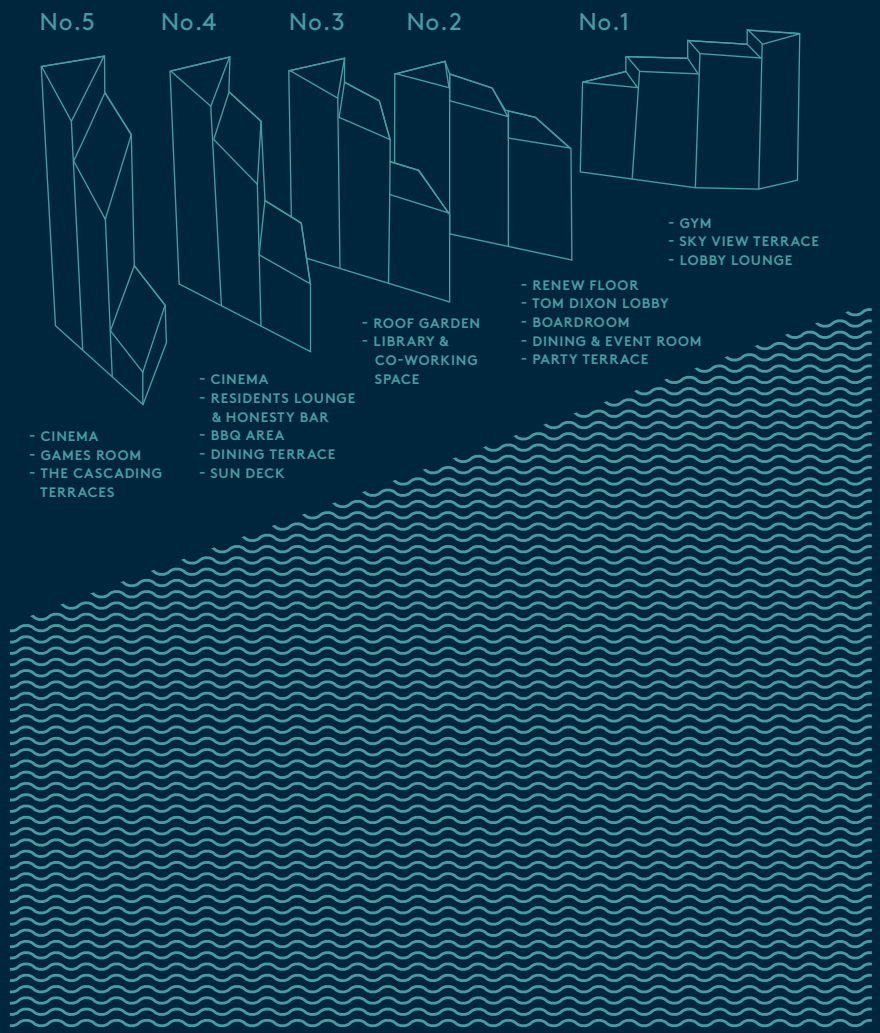
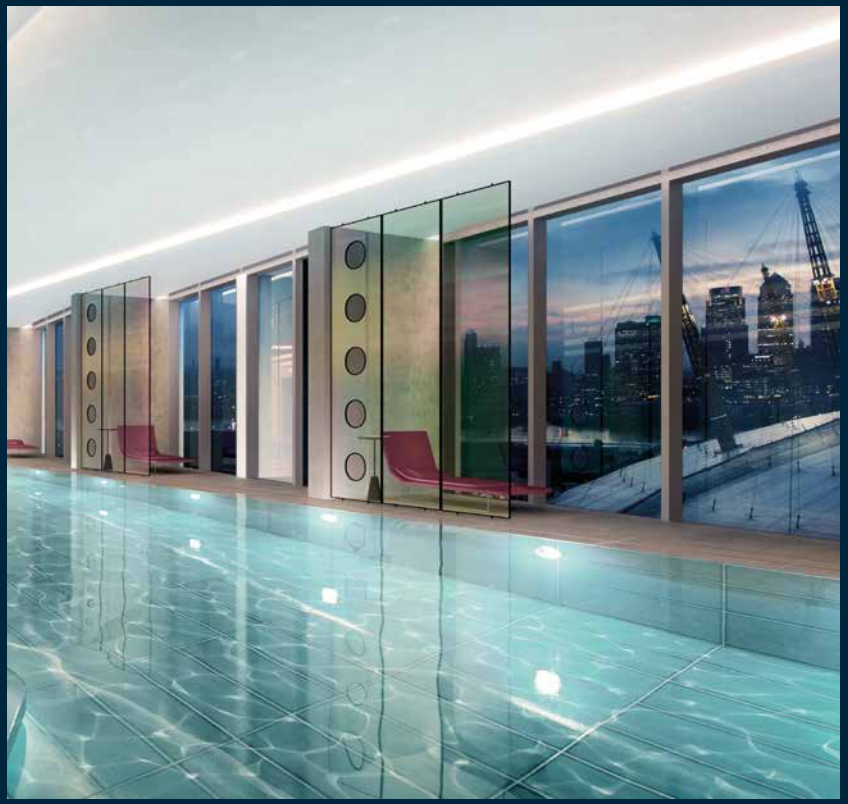
Think of Upper Riverside as a relaxed, unstuffy and welcoming members' club. Living here means exclusive access to gyms, a pool, rooftop terraces, shared spaces and more. There's space to meet your neighbours and be part of a community.

From the outside each of Upper Riverside's five towers share an architectural relationship, they're part of a family. Inside though a select band of the best interior designers have been commissioned to create inspiring environments specific to each building.



COMMUNAL SPACES

Building neighbourhoods is an art. On the Peninsula you'll find more than just well-designed, beautiful homes, you'll also find shared spaces to relax in, socialise and meet your neighbours. In Upper Riverside you get something special – five elegant buildings brimming with urban amenities – a cardio gym, weights gym, steam room, pool, river facing roof terrace, roof bar and even a private cinema and games room. All the neighbourhoods on Greenwich Peninsula are entirely new, this means that the communities you build, through the people you meet, will be completely new too. It's a chance to make friends, invent fresh traditions and create the kind of place you want to live in.



RENEW

Our Renew floor is a whole space dedicated to getting you feeling your best – through relaxing with other people and giving your wellbeing a little bit of attention. Exclusively designed by Tom Dixon, it's hard to decide whether it's the gym and pool in this private spa or the gorgeous terrace views that make your heart healthier.

Renew is a single floor of private facilities for the exclusive use of Upper Riverside residents. The pool is one of London's highest – expect to swim (or gently float) whilst being distracted by dramatic City skyline views of Canary Wharf. Like nearly everywhere in Upper Riverside the gym gets great views of the Thames running alongside the towers. The gym is divided into two so you can either hit the machines in the weights room or pound the treadmills and cycles in the cardio room...making sure you let yourself relax in the steam room afterwards. The Renew floor also has an outdoor roof bar, and an elegantly designed river-facing roof terrace, where you can grab a lounger or a Pilates class on the deck.

CINEMA & GAMES ROOMS

The downside about having exclusive access to a bookable cinema and a games room, is that everyone will want to come over to yours. A lot. Which isn't the worst problem to have.

Some roof terraces in Upper Riverside are shared by all residents. Some are private. All of them offer moments of contemplation as you look out across the sunrise, rolling Thames and hustling City – great during the day, magnificent at night.

THE ROOFS

You'll notice these coolly cascading roof terraces long before you reach the five buildings. It's a striking feature of the architecture, each terrace facing the river. Once part of the Upper Riverside community you'll find yourself using the spaces in so many ways. Think yoga, lunching and being with friends. Think BBQs, parties and exercising (though perhaps not in that order).

THE LOBBIES

Because community matters, Upper Riverside lobbies have been carefully considered to be sophisticatedly sociable. Lounges, libraries, games room and workspaces are all on offer. Again, you can think of the buildings as your own private club – without the dress code or imperious doorman.

Each sociable lobby is a unique special edition, designed by a different world-class interior designer. As part of the Upper Riverside community you'll be welcome in each.

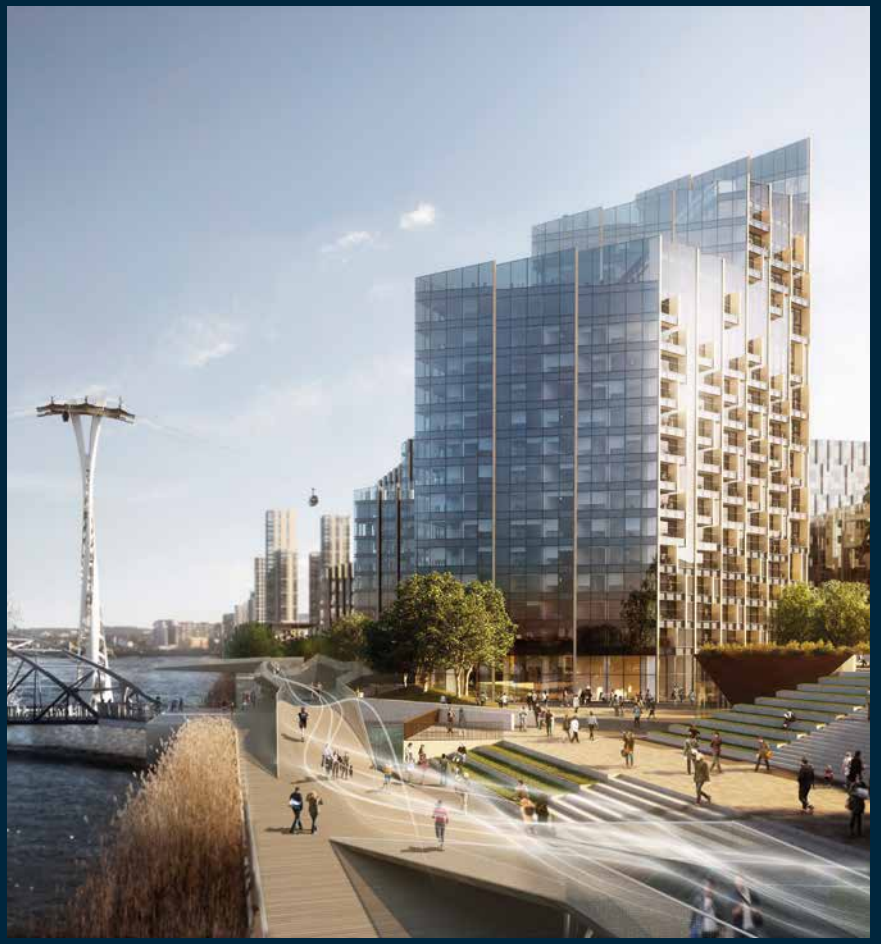
CONCIERGE

As part of the Upper Riverside club you'll be introduced to concierges who are dedicated to taking some of life's small stresses from you. They'll take in deliveries and keep them safely for you, they can make bookings, order taxis, hold a spare key and greet visitors.

THE RIVERSIDE

Destination restaurants, neighbourhood restaurants, cool bars and friendly cafes will line the river, meaning you'll always have options for where to meet friends and relax.

Who knows whether it's artisan coffee, a proper cup of tea, craft beer, a London Gin or detox smoothie that's best to drink as you watch the river roll by? Whichever it is, you'll find it along our riverside.



The P5K will provide residents with a trail that traces the riverfront before winding through the Peninsula. It will offer a unique experience. Run it, stroll it, pause on it – it'll be just one of the many things to do in our entirely active and social riverfront.
