

White Lion Place

Cobham
Surrey

Painshill Park, Cobham

Located on Portsmouth Road, in the heart of Cobham, White Lion Place is an exclusive collection of 30 newly-built and converted houses, apartments and duplexes, designed with retirement in mind.

The six converted properties are the result of Beechcroft's careful conversion of a Grade II listed building that played a major role in Cobham's history. The former White Lion was the first stop on the stagecoach route from London to Portsmouth and, whilst the elevations are mainly 18th century, parts of this historic building date back to the 16th century.

The 24 newly built homes, set in three buildings – Barley House, Mackay House and The Malthouse include a collection of two, three and four-bedroom apartments and duplexes along with a three-bedroom house. Each unique new home provides plenty of generously-proportioned living space and all have outside space in the form of private gardens, terraces, balconies, Juliette balconies or roof terraces.

All the stylish, energy-efficient homes at White Lion Place have been designed to reflect the grandeur of the listed building and historical relevance of the site and each features the contemporary, high quality specification that is a hallmark of all Beechcroft properties.

Discover a new beginning

Beechcroft, one of the country's leading retirement developers, has an excellent reputation for creating elegant houses and luxurious apartments for home buyers over the age of 55.

With 30 years' experience in the creation of award-winning developments for the over 55s, Beechcroft selects sites in desirable villages and market towns. Our beautifully crafted houses, cottages and apartments are stylish, energy efficient, easily maintained and a delight to live in.

Each provides plenty of living space but fewer bedrooms than a family home – and, as at White Lion Place, Cobham, most have sun rooms, terraces, balconies or gardens.

Inspired by local architecture, each Beechcroft scheme is unique, complementing the local area. Rather than being a 'finishing touch', landscaping is integral to the development – carefully planned and lovingly planted.

An Estate Manager is responsible for maintaining the development and keeping an eye on properties whilst owners are away – giving you peace of mind when travelling at home or abroad.

Surrey offers rolling countryside, a rich history, attractive market towns, excellent transport links and easy access to London.

Painshill Park, Cobham

The best of all worlds

Living in Cobham, there's plenty to see and do. The award-winning Painshill Park is almost on the doorstep of White Lion Place. With 158 acres of wonderful 18th century parkland, Painshill Park hosts outdoor theatre, musical performances, history tours and day time lectures. The RHS Gardens at Wisley are on hand and there's a year-round calendar of events including talks, book signings and sculpture trails. Claremont Landscape Gardens, near Esher, also offers beautifully landscaped parkland, guided tours, events and live music performances. Just a short drive away is Hatchlands Park with woodland and wildflower walks.

Running through Cobham is the River Mole, which flows through Surrey and joins the River Thames at East Molesey, opposite the beautiful Hampton Court Palace.

Surrey is renowned for its leafy countryside which takes in Leith Hill, Box Hill and Holmbury Hill and, on the border with Sussex, the Devil's Punch Bowl and Hindhead Common. The North Downs Way starts at Farnham and passes through woodland and open fields on its way to Kent. The River Thames meanders through Richmond and Twickenham to meet the River Mole at Hampton Court.

For those travelling further afield, Surrey is home to two international airports, London Gatwick and London Heathrow. From Cobham & Stoke d'Abernon station to London Waterloo, the rail journey to London takes an average of 39 minutes and, by road, the journey from Cobham to London's Westminster is just over 21 miles.

Set on the banks of the River Mole, within easy reach of the A3 and M25, Cobham provides everything you'll need on a daily basis.

A town with everything on hand

Cobham Mill

This stylish town has a rich sense of history. It is home to the only surviving, fully operational watermill in Surrey – the 19th century Cobham Mill. The parish church of St Andrew has been part of the village for more than eight centuries and features a stained glass window by pre-Raphaelite designer and artist, Edward Burne-Jones.

From dentists, doctors and opticians to banks, travel agencies, bookshops, hardware stores, florists and dry cleaners, Cobham has plenty to offer. There's a post office, a branch of both Waitrose and Sainsbury's along with a wine merchant's, a specialist bakery and a delicatessen.

If you're looking for a touch of retail therapy, you won't need to go far with a range of boutiques and High Street names in Cobham along with jewellery and gift shops. When it's time for a coffee, you'll be spoilt for choice – Carluccio's is ideal. Eating out? There's a restaurant to suit every occasion from the Old Bear riverside pub, the Plough Inn on Downside to national favourites such as Pizza Express, Strada and Maison Blanc as well as the more individual establishments like La Rive set in a period building with soaring ceilings and exposed beams. The 15th century Cedar House Hotel also has an atmospheric restaurant with timbered ceiling, minstrel's gallery – and an excellent menu.

Plenty to see and do

Surrey offers a peaceful lifestyle but that doesn't mean missing out on evenings out. With theatres, cinemas, live music and comedy, you won't be short of things to do or places to go.

Guildford High Street

Guildford, a short journey south along the A3, offers a lively social scene. The Yvonne Arnaud Theatre by the River Wey presents local and national touring productions including drama, opera and ballet. G-Live, a fantastic entertainment venue, hosts music, comedy and other live performances – and there’s also an Odeon cinema complex. In Woking, you’ll find the Ambassador’s Cinema and New Victoria Theatre. There’s also an Odeon cinema in Esher and the Everyman in Walton showcases arthouse movies.

Kingston-upon-Thames, sitting on a picturesque stretch of the River Thames, is famous for its vibrant shopping centre, restaurants and entertainment. Kingston is home to The Bentall Centre, with four levels of shops, cafes, hairdressers, beauty salons and – of course – Bentsalls Department Store. The Rose Theatre hosts a programme of entertainment which includes talks, exhibitions, events and music including monthly jazz performances. The Rotunda is home to a 14-screen IMAX Odeon cinema, a David Lloyd health club, a 16-lane bowling alley, café and seven restaurants.

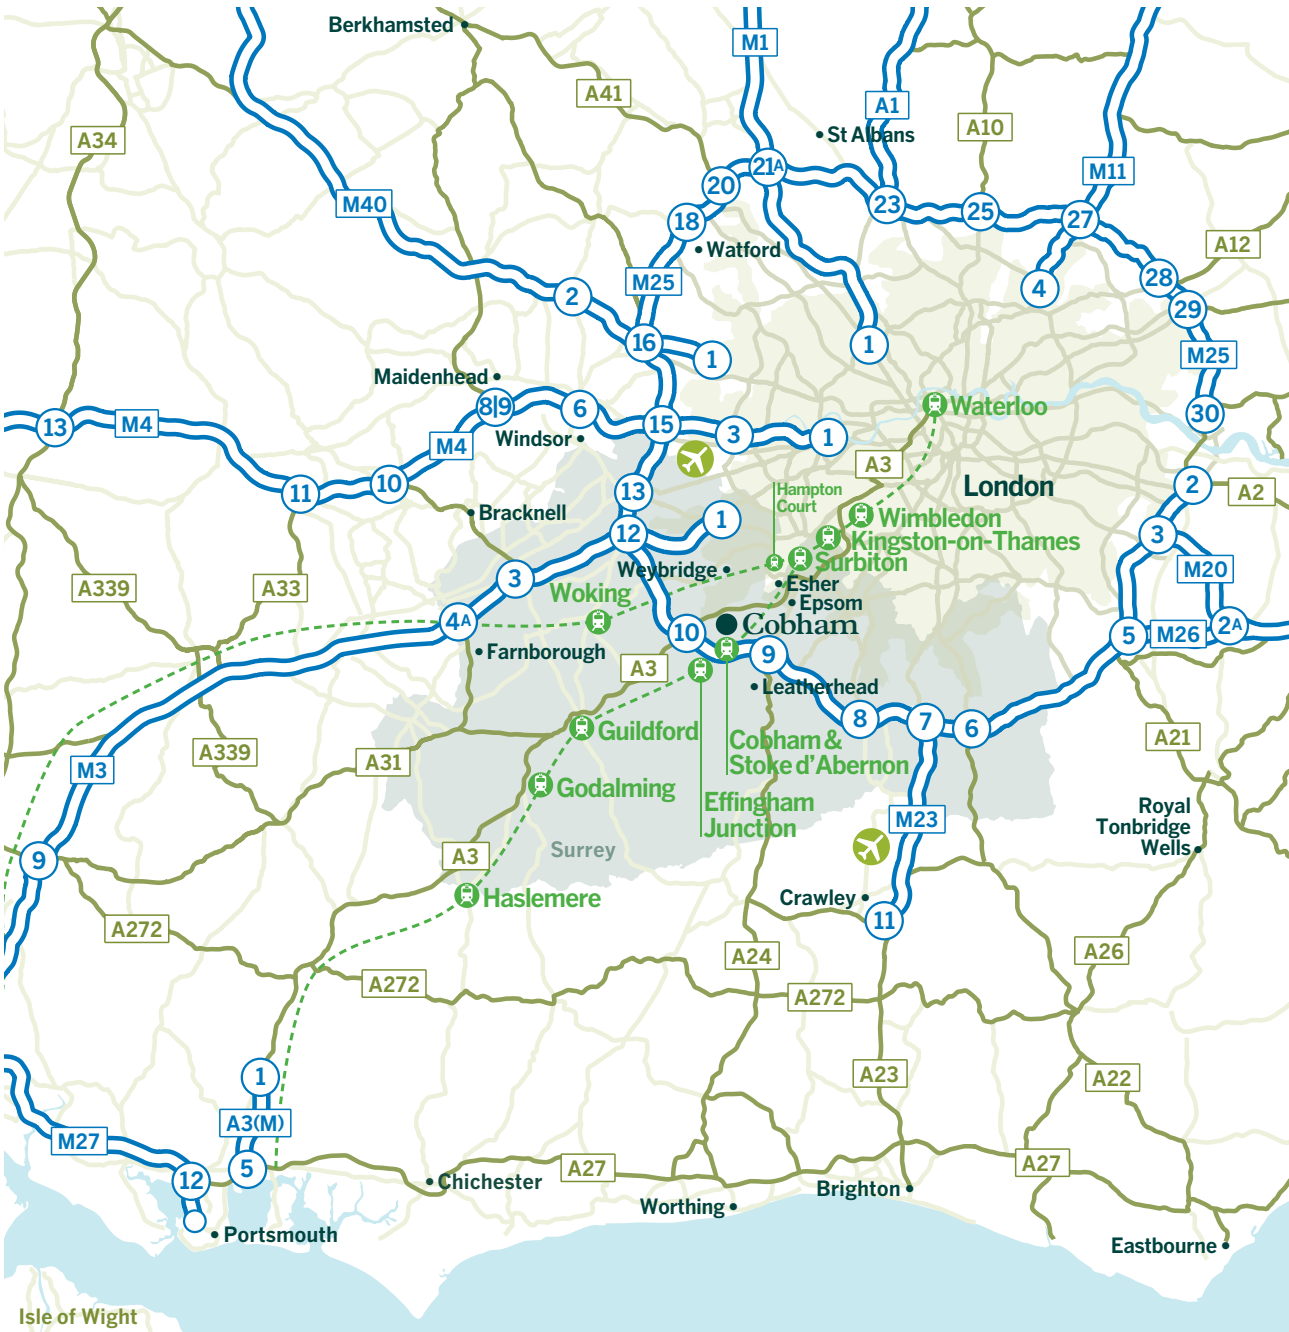

For those who enjoy keeping fit, The Living Well Health Club at the Hilton Cobham is just a few minutes’ drive away, as is Silvermere Strength & Fitness Club. There are David Lloyd gyms at Brooklands and Epsom and a tennis club at St George’s Hill in Weybridge. The many world class golf courses include the St George’s Hill Golf Club, Silvermere, Burhill and Foxhills. Horse-racing enthusiasts will appreciate Surrey’s race courses at Epsom, Sandown Park, Esher, Kempton Park and Sunbury-on-Thames. For motor racing enthusiasts, Brooklands was the birth of British motorsport and, today, the Brooklands Museum displays a wide range of exhibits. Just a walk away from Brooklands is Mercedes-Benz World with the latest models and restored historic cars.

Enjoy complete peace of mind

Let us take on the chores whilst you take time to enjoy your retirement.

The Estate Manager, employed by the Beechcroft Foundation, takes care of the day-to-day management of the development and is on hand to offer help and advice when needed – and keeps a neighbourly eye on properties whilst owners are away.

Owners are consulted annually with regard to all expenditure and services and all properties are sold with a long lease which provides the framework for the Foundation and its services. The lease allows properties to be bought and sold on the open market.
