THE PERFECT SETTING

This popular village with its mainline station and warm community is a great choice for families.

The Chilterns is located in the vibrant village of Haddenham, a location that ticks all the boxes for those seeking that ideal combination of good schools, amenities and transport links all in a peaceful rural setting.

Haddenham village has a number of amenities including a medical centre, library, dentist, four pubs and several shops including an award-winning butcher. Excellent local schooling is a major draw, with two 'Outstanding' rated infant schools in the village feeding into one primary school, as well as being in catchment for Buckinghamshire's grammar schools. The Village has a lot to offer, with its busy calendar of community events including its popular twice yearly beer festival and monthly farmers market.

With its pretty duck pond, village green and Norman church, Haddenham has plenty of charm and is a large village that has grown up around three historic conservation areas. The Chilterns is located on the edge of Haddenham, looking out onto green fields and ideally located to enjoy the Buckinghamshire countryside.

Haddenham has the rare benefit of being a village with a mainline station, direct services on the Chiltern line to and from London Marylebone in as little as 34 minutes, making it convenient for commuters. There are also direct train links to Oxford, Bicester Village and Birmingham. There is also a regular bus service to Oxford Aylesbury and Thame. Nearby the attractive market town of Thame has a buzzing high street with a range of shops, restaurants and leisure facilities. Aylesbury and Oxford are also in easy reach, while the M40 is just eight miles away.

THE RECTORY DIFFERENCE

Rectory is passionate about creating new homes with character, carefully designed around the needs of our customers, balancing practicality with timeless design, and creating developments that respond to and blend with their unique surroundings.

With decades of experience identifying and selecting prime locations, and designing and delivering premium developments, Rectory, is passionately committed to the highest standards of design, construction quality and customer service.

The foundation of the Rectory brand, and the hallmark of any Rectory home, is a completely bespoke approach to the design and build process, and unrivalled attention-to-detail throughout each development. As a privately-owned and managed niche developer, Rectory excels at creating small-scale developments in highly desirable locations, with beautiful properties that are full of character, and that our customers are proud to call home.

From our headquarters in Haddenham, Buckinghamshire, Rectory first made its mark on the discerning market in Central England over 20 years ago, and we have upheld our track record proudly ever since. We are committed to investing in our people, continually improving our standards, and delivering the highest quality homes, whilst creating new communities which respect their surroundings and leave a legacy of lasting quality.

We are proud of our reputation for providing a high specification as standard and The Chilterns is no exception including

- Silestone worktops and upstands
- Integrated double oven, integrated fridge/freezer and integrated dishwasher
- Floor tiles to kitchen, utility, cloakroom and all bathrooms
- Under floor heating to ground floor
- Solid core internal doors throughout
- Dressing room or wardrobe to master bedroom
- Quality external materials and architectural features

A specification and finish truly unrivalled by most of our competitors

Rectory has built an industry-leading reputation on superior quality and design. Our high level of service is maintained from the build process, with an exceptional technical and build team, to the sales process, with dedicated sales and aftercare teams.

We also recognise the benefits of integrating our new homes with existing towns and villages by supporting local facilities through sponsorship and support of community projects, arts and leisure organisations in addition to the contributions made through our planning obligations

MODERN FAMILY LIVING

A collection of high specification new family homes designed with style and convenience in mind to suit contemporary lifestyles.

The Chilterns offers 26 outstanding new homes in a range of three, four and five bedroom layouts. All properties are designed to Rectory's exacting standards using the highest quality, locally sourced materials and each property is individually designed to make the most of its location.

Taking strong influences from local architectural character, the mix of designs and house types combines timeless style with the best in modern construction, eco-features and a premium interior specification.

Interiors are airy and welcoming, with carefully planned layouts set over two or three storeys that make the most of space, light and views. Spacious kitchen / dining / family areas form the heart of the home, many with bi-fold doors opening onto the garden, creating a flexible space for family living.

Upstairs master bedrooms have en-suites and feature either a separate dressing area or fitted wardrobes. All homes are finished with meticulous attention to detail and highlights the carefully chosen specification including stylish contemporary shaker kitchens with a range of integrated appliances, luxurious bathroom suites and underfloor heating to the ground floor.

THE FINER DETAILS

Rectory has established an enviable reputation over the past 20 years for selecting the very best locations throughout the home counties and constructing high quality homes. Our experienced architects consider each development within its local context with designs, materials and extensive landscaping designed to create the feel of an organic and natural extension to the local community.

The owner and Chairman of Rectory, Simon Vickers, and his senior management team have between them many years' experience in the residential development sector. This experience is employed in ensuring every aspect, including design, specification, construction, quality and after-sales services, are second to none.

PREMIER GUARANTEE

In addition to our quality inspection regime all our homes are independently inspected by Premier Guarantee to ensure all technical and industry quality standards are met. On completion, a ten-year warranty will be issued.

RESERVATION

Rectory accepts reservations from purchasers who are proceedable and able to exchange contracts within 28 days from receipt of papers from our solicitors. At the time of reservation a deposit is payable, which forms part of the purchase price.

On exchange of contracts a 10% deposit is payable (less the initial reservation deposit). If the property is complete then a fixed completion date will be agreed, if the property is in construction an estimated completion date will be advised.

AFTER SALES CARE

Rectory does its utmost to ensure your new home is constructed to the highest possible standard. It is extensively inspected throughout the construction phase by both the construction and customer services team in order to ensure a high-quality finish. Prior to legal completion a home demonstration is arranged for our customer service team to introduce you to your new home and to advise you of our after sales services. Our customer services team are on hand to help and to deal with any teething problems you may have after you have moved in. Your Premier Guarantee documents outline the extensive cover for the initial two year warrantee period and the following eight year structural warrantee period.
