In brief...

guide price £350,000 - £365,000

Big, bright and stylishly decorated this three bedroom house has a large garden with countryside views and is in an area popular with young families as there are shops and a primary school within walking distance. Well served for transport links into central Brighton which is just a 15 minute drive, you are close, but not too close to the A27/A23, and with woodland walks at the end of the quiet cul de sac as well as access to Bevendean Downs around the corner, you will sleep soundly at night and wake up to birdsong, a prospect which will appeal to commuting professionals and investors too.

Style: Terraced House
Bedrooms: 3
Area: 963 sq ft
