Situation

The smallholding occupies a delightful rural position within the Blackdown Hills, an area of outstanding natural beauty. A predominantly agricultural landscape primarily comprising pasture land interspersed with an abundance of woodland. Despite its attractive and rural position the property still enjoys easy access to surrounding districts and main routes of communication. The property sits on the outskirts of the village of Bishopswood and occupies a private position down a long track shared by three other properties.

Bishopswood is located in the Blackdown Hills which lies south of the vale of Taunton and just North of Honiton and Chard. There is an excellent pub/restaurant within the village itself which is seen to be the hub of the community. There are also thriving local communities in the nearby villages of Churchinford and Hemyock, both centres offering post office, primary school, public house and doctor's surgery with a sports centre available at the latter.

Taunton is 10 miles away and has a wide range of shopping and scholastic facilities. There are good independent schools within reach and Taunton includes access to the M5 motorway at Junction 25, as well as a mainline rail link to London Paddington. The A303 which gives good access to Southern England, may be joined 1 ½ miles to the South.
