

This 'natural' four bedroom Victorian house is an increasingly rare gem. Well-maintained over a long period of ownership it retains many features and huge scope to extend into the loft, side return and extra-large basement (STPP) and has a delightful garden. Situated off Northcote Road, in the catchment of the highly-rated Belleville School and within half a mile of Clapham Junction station.

The double reception room has dividing doors, alongside fireplaces, ornate plasterwork and stripped wooden floors. The well-fitted kitchen has lovely oak floors and a large bay window overlooking the beautifully secluded rear garden. The garden itself has raised borders planted with mature and attractive shrubs and receives good sun from the west. There is also a downstairs WC and a large storage cupboard for coats and shoes. The cellar is extra-large and houses a generous utility area and a separate workshop / storage room.

Upstairs, the four double bedrooms all have built in storage and are served by a shower room and a family bathroom. The loft space is undeveloped and could, once converted, comfortably accommodate two more bedrooms or a master suite if desired.

The house is situated opposite the entrance to Berber Road allowing light to flow through the property. The specialist shops, bars and restaurants of Northcote Road are close by as are a number of good primary, secondary and nursery schools. The green spaces and recreational facilities of both Wandsworth and Clapham Commons are within a few hundred metres whilst Clapham Junction station (less than half a mile) and Clapham South tube (under three quarters of a mile) provide direct services to The City and West End.
