YOUR MOVE

Corporation Street, London

Guide £1,290,000

Property Description

A former public house which has been carefully restored and renovated to a delightful and truly unique family home is being offered onto the open market for the first time in over 30 years. Boasting a wealth of original features, an internal inspection is highly advised to fully appreciate the immense beauty of this amazing historical building. EPC grade D.

Our View

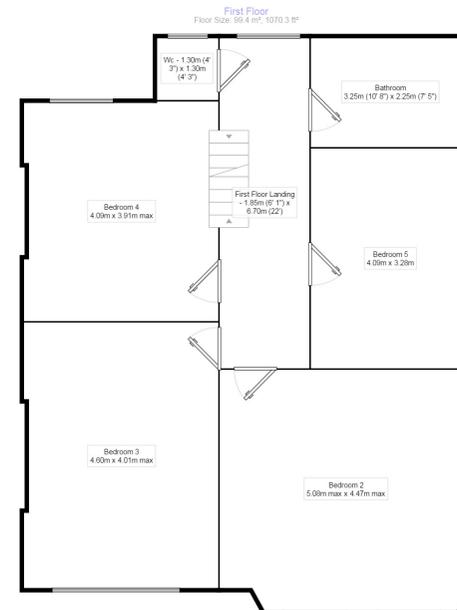

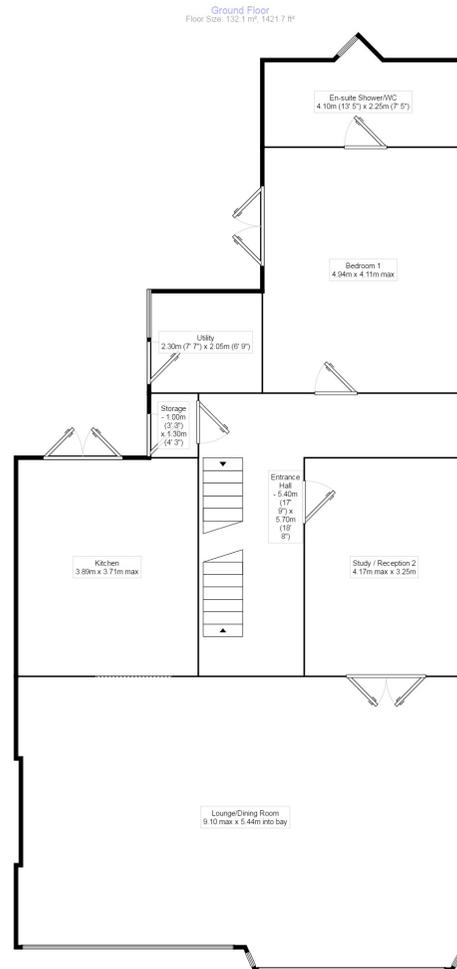

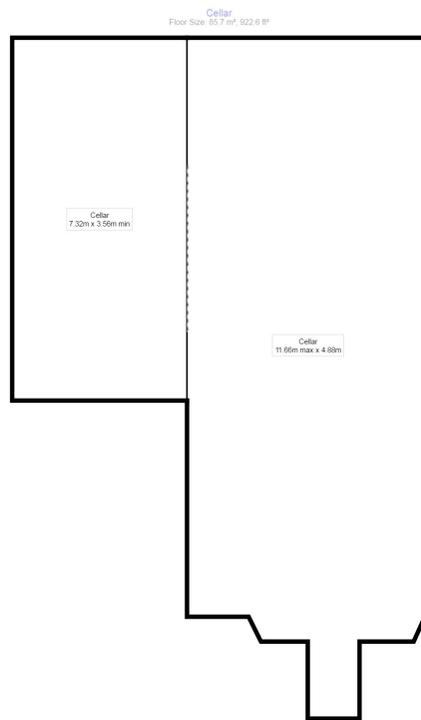

Full of charm and charisma, this house has been sympathetically restored into the elegant and sophisticated family home it is today. With the added benefit of having a cellar which spans almost the entire width and length of the ground floor, the potential here is almost endless. For further information and to arrange an internal inspection contact the Stratford branch.

Location

Stratford is an established district comprising Victorian terraced homes along residential streets and modern apartments. Its refreshed approach welcomes new cultures, developments and ideas with retail opportunities, educational and sporting facilities. There is much to discover in Stratford.
