

Thurloe Place
South Kensington, SW7

A magnificent Grade II listed FOUR BEDROOM period house with three large reception rooms and a spectacular view of the world famous Victoria & Albert Museum. The property also benefits from two balconies and a stunning south facing garden.

This family home has been well-maintained and would now benefit from modernisation and general updating. There is also potential for an extension (subject to planning).

Thurloe Place is situated between Knightsbridge and South Kensington offering access to a world class selection of local amenities, which include Harrods, restaurants, shops and museums. The closest Underground station is South Kensington (District, Circle and Piccadilly lines) and bus routes in the area give this property excellent transport links.
