WELCOME TO BOURTON CHASE

Built in honey-coloured Cotswold stone, these delightful homes are perfect for new buyers, growing families and anyone who is looking for a stylish modern home in a traditional English village.

On the outskirts of Bourton-on-the-Water; a beautiful place where the peaceful rural lifestyle has remained intact, with excellent 21st century communication links nearby.

Bourton Chase is in the heart of England's favourite landscape, the Cotswolds. The village is thriving and popular, with schools, shops and a host of local amenities well-used by residents of all ages. Bourton Chase is surrounded by countryside, perfect for walking and cycling, bustling market towns and sleepy little hamlets, unspoilt country pubs and charming tea rooms.

The development at Bourton Chase has been carefully planned as a new community, with open green spaces, footpaths and cycleways. The homes are designed to reflect the much-loved local architecture, combined with the very latest in building techniques, specifications and energy efficiency.

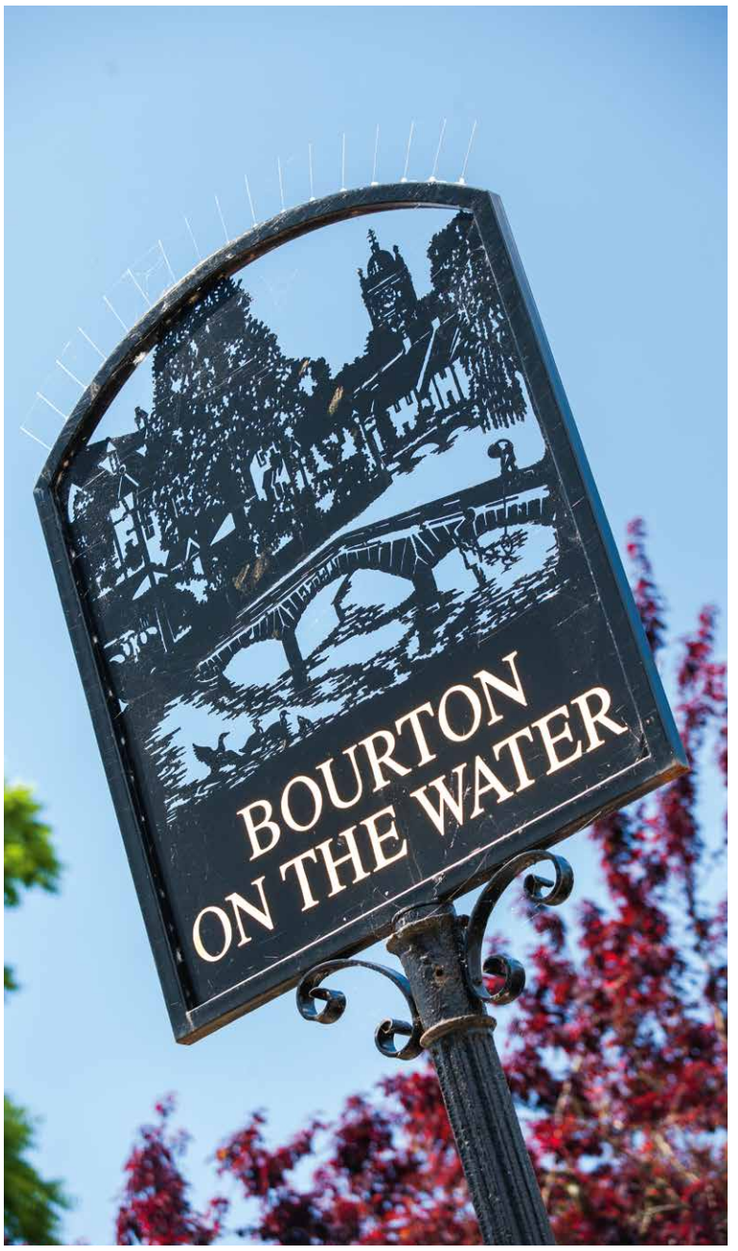
Bourton-on-the-Water

EVERYTHING
ALL AROUND YOU

With fast links to the A40 and M40 connecting you to Birmingham, Oxford and approximately 2 hours drive to Central London, everything you need is within easy reach.



The River Windrush, with its many streams and tributaries, winds through the centre of Bourton-on-the-Water, where several low arched stone bridges give it the name "Venice of the Cotswolds". Indeed, the historic village centre is beautifully preserved, with nearly all its 17th century buildings, in golden local stone, showing the distinctive Cotswold architecture.

The village has a Post Office, bank, bakery, convenience store and other local shops, as well as several fine old pubs. You'll also find a library and youth centre, and just out of town, a Tesco Superstore. The village also has several doctors and dentists surgeries.

OUTSTANDING
EDUCATION

Bourton Chase's convenient location makes this the perfect place for families of all ages.

Families will appreciate the local schools, with Bourton-on-the-Water Primary School receiving a 'Good' report from Ofsted, while The Cotswold School is an 'Outstanding' Secondary Academy. Both are within walking distance of Bourton Chase.

The area is also well supplied with private schools, including Kitebrook House, Dormer House and Bloxham School, while there are several colleges in the Cheltenham area and, of course, Oxford.
