

A reputation you can rely on

When it comes to buying your new home it is reassuring to know that you are dealing with one of the most successful companies in the country, with a reputation built on designing and creating fine houses and apartments nationwide backed up with one of the industry's best after-care services.

In 1946 John and Russell Bell, newly demobbed, joined their father John T. Bell in a small family owned housebuilding business in Newcastle upon Tyne. From the very beginning John T. Bell & Sons, as the new company was called, were determined to break the mould. In the early 1950s Kenneth Bell joined his brothers in the company and new approaches to design layout and finishes were developed. In 1963 John T. Bell & Sons became part of the public corporate scene and the name Bellway evolved.

Today Bellway is one of Britain's largest house building companies and is continuing to grow throughout the country. Since its formation, Bellway has built and sold over 100,000 homes catering for first time buyers to more seasoned home buyers and their families. The Group's rapid growth has turned Bellway into a multi-million pound company, employing over 2,000 people directly and many more sub-contractors. From its original base in Newcastle upon Tyne the Group has expanded in to all regions of the country and is now poised for further growth.

Our homes are designed, built and marketed by local teams operating from regional offices managed and staffed by local people. This allows the company to stay close to its customers and take key decisions about design, build, materials, planning and marketing in response to local and not national demands. A simple point, but one which we believe distinguishes Bellway.

Over 60 years of great homes and great service

An historic town with a vibrant future

Welcome to Hanwell View, a charming collection of three, four and five bedroom homes in the peaceful Oxfordshire market town of Banbury.

Your new home is surrounded by beautiful countryside and the river Cherwell is just a moments walk away; meanwhile your proximity to the M40, just 3 miles away, 5 minutes by car, and Banbury Railway Station is just a six minute drive from home, with journey times to Birmingham of around 47 minutes, and London Marylebone in under an hour.

Banbury is a town steeped in history; Ye Olde Reindeer Inn in Parson's Street, was first opened in the 15^{th} century, and of course the town was the inspiration for the 18^{th} century nursery rhyme 'Ride A Cock-Horse to Banbury Cross'. You can see a statue of the rhyme's 'fine lady' at the cross itself. Today, Banbury is a vibrant town, home to the world's largest coffee-processing facility and famous for its eponymous cake, a spiced pastry filled with currants.

The centre of town features a plethora of retail outlets. Big name stores include Debenhams, Marks and Spencer and Pandora; smaller independent boutiques are also dotted around the pedestrianised town centre. There are plenty of places to grab a bite to eat, including Little Amsterdam where you can sign up for classes at the Banbury Cookery School as well as enjoy freshly-made Dutch pancakes.

Banbury also has its own cinema and bowling alley, as well as The Mill Arts Centre, a multi-art performance venue in the heart of the town, where you can enjoy a variety of live entertainment. If long walks are your passion, you can find plenty of routes around the town, including alongside the Oxford Canal; if golf is more your thing, you can head to Banbury Golf & Country Club.

Hanwell View is well served for schools and leisure activities for children, there are several football, rugby and cricket clubs close at hand. Less than a mile away is Hanwell Fields Community School for young children, while Hill View Primary for 4-11 olds is 1.6 miles away, and older pupils, aged 11-21, are catered for at North Oxfordshire Academy and Wroxton College Independent School.

Customer Care

Our dedicated Customer Care department will ensure your move to a new Bellway home is as smooth as possible

For over sixty years the name Bellway has been synonymous with quality craftsmanship and quality homes; we are justifiably proud of this reputation and work hard to provide you with a home that meets with your dreams.

From the day a customer visits our sales centre to the move-in day we aim to provide a level of service and after-sales care that is second to none.

In recognising the close involvement our customers seek in purchasing their new homes we deliberately gear our sales hand-over process to involve our customers at every possible opportunity. Firstly all our homes are quality checked by our site managers and sales advisors. Customers are then invited to pre-occupation visits; this provides a valuable opportunity for homeowners to understand the various running aspects of their new home. On the move-in day our site and sales personnel will be there to ensure that the move-in is achieved as smoothly as possible.

Providing customer care and building quality homes is good business sense. However, we are aware that errors do occur and it has always been our intention to minimise inconvenience and resolve any outstanding issues at the earliest opportunity. In managing this process we have after sales teams and a Customer Care centre that is specifically tasked to respond to all customer complaints.

We have a 24 hour emergency helpline and provide a comprehensive information pack that details the working aspects of a new home; a 10 year NHBC warranty provides further peace of mind.

We are confident that our approach to building and selling new homes coupled with our Customer Care programme will provide you with many years of enjoyment in your new home.
