A detached residence featuring spacious living accommodation and four double bedrooms, located within a pleasant turning situated just north of Loughton town centre.

The owners tell us, 'We have lived here happily since 1987. We recall we had been looking for four years before finding this property. Upon arriving at what was to become our home we were impressed by the location, access to the shops and station. Once inside the property we knew straight away that this was the one for us.

We were impressed by the spacious sitting/dining area, which also has a semi-open-plan family area adjacent to it. In our time here we have added the conservatory – altogether, these areas create a great space for entertaining friends and family.

Another feature of our home is that the bedrooms area all doubles; when we were searching for a property we found it difficult to find a home with the right balance of size between the bedrooms, so we were naturally impressed with the spaciousness of the bedrooms – it was a big decision in buying the home.

Living in Loughton has been everything we thought it would be and more. We are only 0.9 miles walking distance from the station, making central London very accessible. The pavement café culture, a good selection of shops and restaurants, two supermarkets and a Marks and Spencers Simply Food is only 0.3 miles away, yet we enjoy a quiet road in which to live.

Then there are excellent schools within the area, Epping Forest provides excellent walks, horse riding and mountain biking."
