

The Dial House

Description

An elegant Grade II Listed building located in one of Windsor's most sought after locations. This property has recently been refurbished to a high specification whilst incorporating all the traditional aspects to create an authentic feel. The high ceilings, wooden beams and exquisite fireplaces provide a spacious yet sophisticated environment.

This spacious property has four bedrooms, three bathrooms and four reception rooms spread over four levels, creating a generously sized, town-house feel. The kitchen is ideal for the family, with a combined breakfast room and separate utility room, with a door leading to small courtyard and patio area.

This stunning property is complete with striking views of Windsor Castle, through the large sash windows, not only adding to the authentic traditional feel this house portrays, but also inundating the rooms with light supplementing the spacious feel.

Location

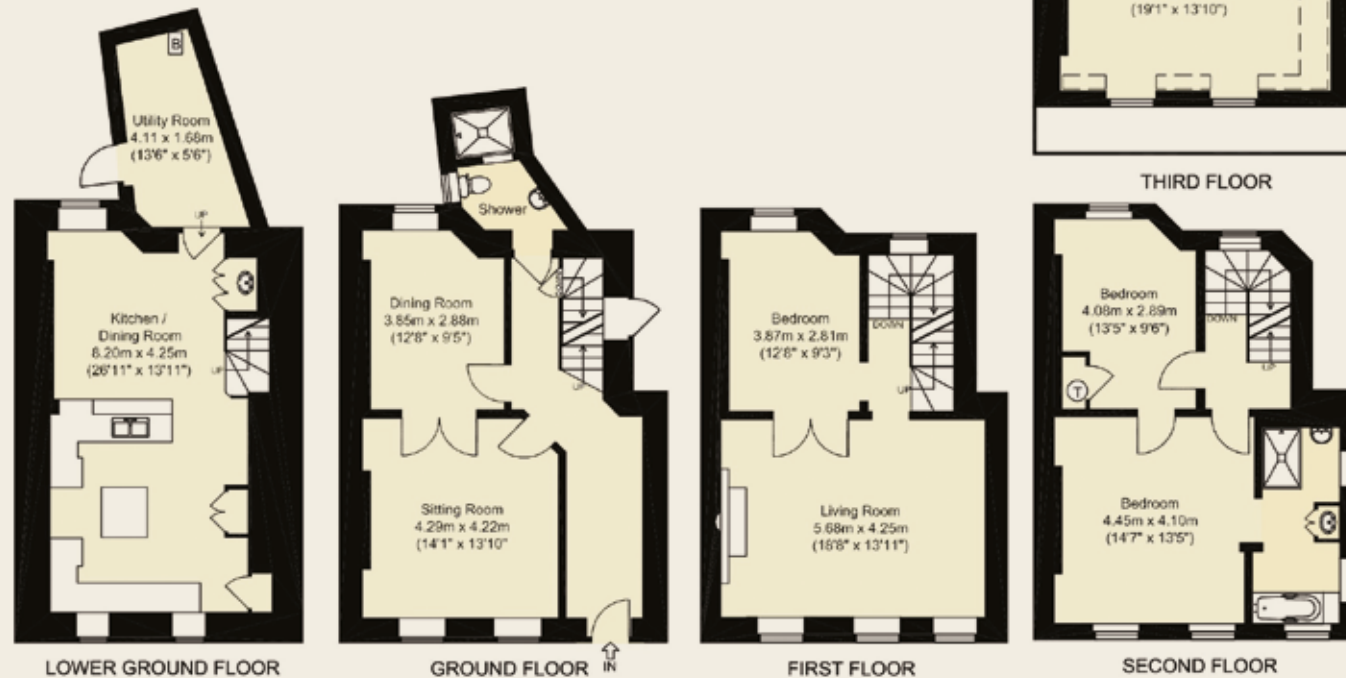

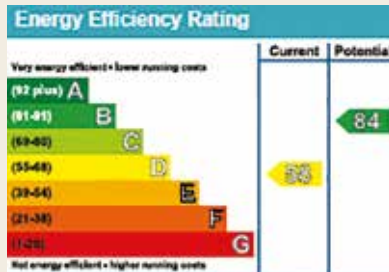

Within walking distance of the Long Walk and Windsor Town Centre, The Dial House is situated in an idyllic and prime location. Windsor town centre offers a wide variety of shops restaurants, café bars, historic buildings and the world famous Windsor Castle. Other nearby towns include the village of Bray, Holyport, Burnham, Eton and the larger towns of Maidenhead and Ascot are nearby.

The area offers a wealth of sporting and leisure facilities, with golfing at the world famous Wentworth Golf Club and Sunningdale Golf Club; horse racing at Ascot and Windsor and regular polo fixtures at Guards Polo Club. There are also many local health clubs, including Wentworth Club, Coworth Park Hotel Spa and Pennyhill Park Health Club and Spa.

The property is situated with direct access to the M4, leading to the M25 and M40, Heathrow Airport and Central London. There are brilliant rail-links to London Waterloo and London Paddington, from Windsor & Eton Riverside station and Windsor and Eton Central station respectively.
