Explanatory Notes to Numbered Items

19. The landlord will normally be the person to whom the ground rent is payable, although it is possible that an agent may be employed to collect this on the landlord’s behalf. The person or the organisation to whom the service charge is payable may be your landlord or head landlord or a residents management company - you should find the landlord's details on your latest service charge demand. It is also possible that an agent has been employed to collect service charges on their behalf.

20. The number of years is calculated by taking the original number of years the lease was granted for and deducting the number of years that have expired since the lease was first granted.

21. This information will be found in the lease.

22. This information will be found on the previous years service charge demands.

24. Leaseholders should have been notified of this as part of the required consultation process where their contribution towards the work exceeds £250.

Please note: All leaseholders should have their own copy of the lease although sometimes this is held by the mortgage lender or the conveyancer who handled the purchase. A copy can normally be obtained from the Land Registry (www.landregisteronline.gov.uk). It is unlikely that the managing agent will be able to provide a copy of the lease.
This home's performance is rated in terms of the energy use per square metre of floor area, energy efficiency based on fuel costs and environmental impact based on carbon dioxide (CO₂) emissions.

The energy efficiency rating is a measure of the overall efficiency of a home. The higher the rating the more energy efficient the home is and the lower the fuel bills are likely to be.

The environmental impact rating is a measure of a home's impact on the environment in terms of carbon dioxide (CO₂) emissions. The higher the rating the less impact it has on the environment.

Based on standardised assumptions about occupancy, heating patterns and geographical location, the above table provides an indication of how much it will cost to provide lighting, heating and hot water to this home. The fuel costs only take into account the cost of fuel and not any associated service, maintenance or safety inspection. This certificate has been provided for comparative purposes only and enables one home to be compared with another. Always check the date the certificate was issued, because fuel prices can increase over time and energy saving recommendations will evolve.

To see how this home can achieve its potential rating please see the recommended measures.

This EPC and recommendations report may be given to the Energy Saving Trust to provide you with information on improving your dwelling's energy performance. The Energy Performance Certificate for this dwelling was produced following an energy assessment undertaken by a qualified assessor, accredited by BRE Certification, to a scheme authorised by the Government. This certificate was produced using the RdSAP 2005 assessment methodology and has been produced under the Energy Performance of Buildings (Certificates and Inspections)(England and Wales) Regulations 2007 as amended. A copy of the certificate has been lodged on a national register.

If you have a complaint or wish to confirm that the certificate is genuine

Details of the assessor and the relevant accreditation scheme are as above. You can get contact details of the accreditation scheme from their website at www.breassessor.co.uk together with details of their procedures for confirming authenticity of a certificate and for making a complaint.

About the building’s performance ratings

The ratings on the certificate provide a measure of the building's overall energy efficiency and its environmental impact, calculated in accordance with a national methodology that takes into account factors such as insulation, heating and hot water systems, ventilation and fuels used. The average Energy Efficiency Rating for a dwelling in England and Wales is band E (rating 46).

Not all buildings are used in the same way, so energy ratings use 'standard occupancy' assumptions which may be different from the specific way you use your home. Different methods of calculation are used for homes and for other buildings. Details can be found at www.communities.gov.uk/epbd

Buildings that are more energy efficient use less energy, save money and help protect the environment. A building with a rating of 100 would cost almost nothing to heat and light and would cause almost no carbon emissions. The potential ratings in the certificate describe how close this building could get to 100 if all the cost effective recommended improvements were implemented.

About the impact of buildings on the environment

One of the biggest contributors to global warming is carbon dioxide. The way we use energy in buildings causes emissions of carbon. The energy we use for heating, lighting and power in homes produces over a quarter of the UK’s carbon dioxide emissions and other buildings produce a further one-sixth.

The average household causes about 6 tonnes of carbon dioxide every year. Adopting the recommendations in this report can reduce emissions and protect the environment. You could reduce emissions even more by switching to renewable energy sources. In addition there are many simple everyday measures that will save money, improve comfort and reduce the impact on the environment. Some examples are given at the end of this report.

Improvements to the energy efficiency and environmental impact ratings will usually be in step with each other. However, they can sometimes diverge because reduced energy costs are not always accompanied by a reduction in carbon dioxide (CO$_2$) emissions.
If you are a tenant, before undertaking any work you should check the terms of your lease and obtain approval from your landlord if the lease either requires it, or makes no express provision for such work.

Lower cost measures (typically up to £500 each)

These measures are relatively inexpensive to install and are worth tackling first. Some of them may be installed as DIY projects. DIY is not always straightforward, and sometimes there are health and safety risks, so take advice before carrying out DIY improvements.

1 Loft insulation

Loft insulation laid in the loft space or between roof rafters to a depth of at least 270 mm will significantly reduce heat loss through the roof; this will improve levels of comfort, reduce energy use and lower fuel bills. Insulation should not be placed below any cold water storage tank, any such tank should also be insulated on its sides and top, and there should be boarding on battens over the insulation to provide safe access between the loft hatch and the cold water tank. The insulation can be installed by professional contractors but also by a capable DIY enthusiast. Loose granules may be used instead of insulation quilt; this form of loft insulation can be blown into place and can be useful where access is difficult. The loft space must have adequate ventilation to prevent dampness; seek advice about this if unsure. Further information about loft insulation and details of local contractors can be obtained from the National Insulation Association (www.nationalinsulationassociation.org.uk).

2 Low energy lighting

Replacement of traditional light bulbs with energy saving recommended ones will reduce lighting costs over the lifetime of the bulb, and they last up to 12 times longer than ordinary light bulbs. Also consider selecting low energy light fittings when redecorating; contact the Lighting Association for your nearest stockist of Domestic Energy Efficient Lighting Scheme fittings.

3 Heating controls (thermostatic radiator valves)

Thermostatic radiator valves allow the temperature of each room to be controlled to suit individual needs, adding to comfort and reducing heating bills provided internal doors are kept closed. For example, they can be set to be warmer in the living room and bathroom than in the bedrooms. Ask a competent heating engineer to install thermostatic radiator valves. Thermostatic radiator valves should be fitted to every radiator except the radiator in the same room as the room thermostat. Remember the room thermostat is needed as well as the thermostatic radiator valves, to enable the boiler to switch off when no heat is required.

Higher cost measures (typically over £500 each)

4 Band A condensing boiler

A condensing boiler is capable of much higher efficiencies than other types of boiler, meaning it will burn less fuel to heat this property. This improvement is most appropriate when the existing central heating boiler needs repair or replacement, but there may be exceptional circumstances making this impractical. Condensing boilers need a drain for the condensate which limits their location; remember this when considering remodelling the room containing the existing boiler even if the latter is to be retained for the time being (for example a kitchen makeover). Building Regulations apply to this work, so your local authority building control department should be informed, unless the installer is registered with a competent persons scheme¹, and can therefore self-certify the work for Building Regulation compliance. Ask a qualified heating engineer to explain the options.

About the further measures to achieve even higher standards

Further measures that could deliver even higher standards for this home. You should check the conditions in any covenants, planning conditions, warranties or sale contracts before undertaking any of these measures. If you are a tenant, before undertaking any work you should check the terms of your lease and obtain approval from your landlord if the lease either requires it, or makes no express provision for such work.

5 Double glazing

Double glazing is the term given to a system where two panes of glass are made up into a sealed unit.

¹ For information on competent persons schemes enter “existing competent person schemes” into an internet search engine or contact your local Energy Saving Trust advice centre on 0800 512 012.
Replacing existing single-glazed windows with double glazing will improve comfort in the home by reducing draughts and cold spots near windows. Double-glazed windows may also reduce noise, improve security and combat problems with condensation. Building Regulations apply to this work, so either use a contractor who is registered with a competent persons scheme¹ or obtain advice from your local authority building control department.

6 Internal or external wall insulation

Solid wall insulation involves adding a layer of insulation to either the inside or the outside surface of the external walls, which reduces heat loss and lowers fuel bills. As it is more expensive than cavity wall insulation it is only recommended for walls without a cavity, or where for technical reasons a cavity cannot be filled. Internal insulation, known as dry-lining, is where a layer of insulation is fixed to the inside surface of external walls; this type of insulation is best applied when rooms require redecorating and can be installed by a competent DIY enthusiast. External solid wall insulation is the application of an insulant and a weather-protective finish to the outside of the wall. This may improve the look of the home, particularly where existing brickwork or rendering is poor, and will provide long-lasting weather protection. Further information can be obtained from the National Insulation Association (www.nationalinsulationassociation.org.uk). It should be noted that planning permission might be required.

What can I do today?

Actions that will save money and reduce the impact of your home on the environment include:

- Ensure that you understand the dwelling and how its energy systems are intended to work so as to obtain the maximum benefit in terms of reducing energy use and CO₂ emissions.
- Check that your heating system thermostat is not set too high (in a home, 21°C in the living room is suggested) and use the timer to ensure you only heat the building when necessary.
- Make sure your hot water is not too hot - a cylinder thermostat need not normally be higher than 60°C.
- Turn off lights when not needed and do not leave appliances on standby. Remember not to leave chargers (e.g. for mobile phones) turned on when you are not using them.
- Close your curtains at night to reduce heat escaping through the windows.
- If you're not filling up the washing machine, tumble dryer or dishwasher, use the half-load or economy programme.

Please refer to the attached Terms and Conditions.
PUBLIC SEWER MAP

3 Q: Where relevant, please include a copy of an extract from the public sewer map.

A: A copy of an extract from the public sewer map is included in which the location of the property is identified.

1. Public sewers are defined as those for which the company holds statutory responsibility under the Water Industry Act 1991.
2. The company is not generally responsible for rivers, watercourses, ponds, culverts or highway drains. If any of these are shown on the copy extract they are shown for information only.
3. Sewers indicated on the extract of the public sewer map as being subject to an agreement under section 104 of the Water Industry Act 1991 are not an ‘as constructed’ record. It is recommended that these details are checked with the developer, if any.
4. Assets other than public sewers may be shown on the copy extract, for information only.

FOUL WATER

4 Q: Does foul water from the property drain to a public sewer?

A: Records indicate that foul water from the property drains to a public sewer.

1. Water Companies are not normally responsible for any private drains and sewers which connect the property to the public sewerage system, and do not hold details of these. The property owner will normally have sole responsibility for private drains serving the property and may have shared responsibility, with other users, if the property is served by a private sewer which also serves other properties. These may pass through land outside of the control of the seller and the buyer may wish to investigate whether separate rights or easements are needed for their inspection, repair or renewal.
2. An extract from the public sewer map is enclosed. This will show known public sewers in the vicinity of the property and it should be possible to estimate the likely length and route of any private drains and/or sewers connecting the property to the public sewerage system.
3. If foul water does not drain to the public sewerage system the property may have private facilities in the form of a cesspit, septic tank or other type of treatment plant.

SURFACE WATER

5 Q: Does surface water from the property drain to a public sewer?

A: Records indicate that surface water from the property drains to a public sewer.

1. Water Companies are not normally responsible for private drains and sewers that connect the property to the public sewerage system and do not hold details of these.
2. The property owner will normally have sole responsibility for private drains serving the property and may have shared responsibility, with other users, if the property is served by a private sewer which also serves other properties. These may pass through land outside of the control of the seller and the buyer may wish to investigate whether separate rights or easements are needed for their inspection, repair or renewal.
3. In some cases water company records do not distinguish between foul and surface water connections to the public sewerage system.
4. If on inspection the buyer finds that the property is not connected for surface water drainage, the property may be eligible for a rebate of the surface water drainage charge. Details can be obtained from the company.
5. An extract from the public sewer map is enclosed. This will show known public sewers in the vicinity of the property and it should be possible to estimate the likely length and route of any private drains and/or sewers connecting the property to the public sewerage system.
PUBLIC ADOPTION OF SEWERS AND LATERAL DRAINS

6 Q: Are any sewers or lateral drains serving or which are proposed to serve the property the subject of an existing adoption agreement or an application for such an agreement?

A: Records indicate that the sewers serving the development, of which this property forms part, are not subject of an application for adoption under S104 of the Water Industry Act 1991. Where the property is part of an established development it would not normally be subject to an adoption agreement under Section 104 of the Water Industry Act 1991.

1. This enquiry is of interest to purchasers of new homes who will want to know whether or not the property will be linked to a public sewer.

2. Where the property is part of a very recent or ongoing development and the sewers are not the subject of an adoption application, buyers should consult with the developer to ascertain the extent of private drains and sewers for which they will hold maintenance and renewal liabilities.

3. Final adoption is subject to the developer complying with the terms of the adoption agreement under Section 104 of the Water Industry Act 1991.

PUBLIC SEWERS WITHIN THE BOUNDARY OF THE PROPERTY

7 Q: Does the public sewer map indicate any public sewer, disposal main or lateral drain within the boundaries of the property?

A: The public sewer map indicates that there are no public sewers, disposal mains or lateral drains within the boundaries of the property. However, it has not always been a requirement for such public sewers, disposal mains or laterals drains to be on the public sewer map. It is therefore possible for unidentified public sewers, disposal mains or lateral drains to exist within the boundaries of the property.

1. The boundary of the property has been determined by reference to the Ordnance Survey record.

2. The presence of a public sewer running within the boundary of the property may restrict further development. The company has a statutory right of access to carry out work on its assets, subject to notice. This may result in employees of the company or its contractors needing to enter the property to carry out work.

3. Sewers indicated on the extract of the public sewer map as being subject to an agreement under Section 104 of the Water Industry Act 1991 are not an 'as constructed' record. It is recommended that these details be checked with the developer, if any.

PUBLIC SEWERS NEAR TO THE PROPERTY

8 Q: Does the public sewer map indicate any public sewer or a sewer, subject to an agreement under Section 104 of the Water Industry Act 1991, within 30.48 metres (100 feet) of any buildings within the property?

A: The public sewer map included indicates that there is a public sewer within 30.48 metres (100 feet) of a building within the property.

1. The presence of a public sewer within 30.48 metres (100 feet) of the building(s) within the property can result in the local authority requiring a property to be connected to the public sewer.

2. The measure is estimated from the Ordnance Survey record, between the building(s) within the boundary of the property and the nearest public sewer.

3. Sewers indicated on the extract of the public sewer map as being subject to an agreement under Section 104 of the Water Industry Act 1991 are not an 'as constructed' record. It is recommended that these details be checked with the developer, if any.

BUILDING OVER A PUBLIC SEWER, DISPOSAL MAIN OR DRAIN

9 Q: Has a sewerage undertaker approved or been consulted about any plans to erect a building or extension on the property over or in the vicinity of a public sewer, disposal main or drain?

A: There are no records in relation to any approval or consultation about any plans to erect a building or extension on the property over or in the vicinity of a public sewer, disposal main or drain. However, the sewerage undertaker might not be aware of a building or extension on the property over or in the vicinity of a public sewer, disposal main or drain.

1. Buildings or extensions erected over a sewer in contravention of building Control may have to be removed or altered.

MAP OF WATERWORKS

10 Q: Where relevant, please include a copy of an extract from the map of waterworks.

A: A copy of an extract from the map of the waterworks is included in which the location of the property is identified.

1. The “water mains” in this context are those which are vested in and maintainable by the water company under statute.
2. Assets other than public water mains may be shown on the plan, for information only.
3. Water companies are not responsible for the private supply pipes connecting the property to the public water main and do not hold details of these. These may pass through land outside of the control of the seller, or may be shared with adjacent properties. The buyer may wish to investigate whether separate rights or easements are needed for their inspection, repair or renewal.
4. The copy extract will show known public water mains in the vicinity of the property. It should be possible to estimate the likely length and route of any private water supply pipe connecting the property to the public water network.
5. The “water mains” in this context are those which are vested in and maintainable by the water company under statute.

ADOPTION OF WATER MAINS AND SERVICES PIPES

11 Q: Is any water main or service pipe serving or which is proposed to serve the property the subject of an existing adoption agreement or an application for such an agreement?

A: Records confirm that water mains or service pipes serving the property are not the subject of an existing adoption agreement or an application for such an agreement.

1. This enquiry is of interest to purchasers of new homes who will want to know whether or not the property will be linked to the mains water supply.

SEWERAGE AND WATER UNDERTAKERS

12 Q: Who are the sewerage and water undertakers for the area?

A: The sewerage undertaker for the area is Southern Water Services, Southern House, Yeoman Road, Worthing, Sussex BN13 3NX

CONNECTION TO MAINS WATER SUPPLY

13. Q: Is the property connected to mains water supply?

A: Records indicate that the property is connected to mains water supply.

1. Details of private supplies are not kept by the Water Undertaker. The situation should be checked with the current owner of the property.

WATER MAINS, RESOURCE MAINS OR DISCHARGE PIPES

14. Q: Are there any water mains, resource mains or discharge pipes within the boundaries of the property?

A: The map of the waterworks does not indicate any water mains, resource mains or discharge pipes within the boundaries of the property.

1. The boundary of the property has been determined by reference to the Ordnance Survey record.
2. The presence of a public water main within the boundary of the property may restrict further development within it. Water undertakers have a statutory right of access to carry out work on their assets, subject to notice. This may result in employees of the Water Undertaker or its contractors needing to enter to carry out work.

CURRENT BASIS FOR SEWERAGE AND WATER CHARGES

15. Q: What is the current basis for charging for water and sewerage services at the property?

A: The charges are based on the rateable value of the property of 202 and the charge for the current financial year is £392.25.

1. Water and Sewerage undertakers’ full charges are set out in their charges schemes which are available from the relevant Undertaker free of charge upon request.

CHARGES FOLLOWING CHANGE OF OCCUPATION

16. Q: Will the basis for charging for sewerage and water services at the property change as a consequence of a change of occupation?

A: There will be no change in the current charging arrangements as a consequence of change of occupation.

1. Water and Sewerage Undertaker’s full charges are set out in their charges schemes which are available from the relevant Undertaker free of charge upon request.
2. It is policy to meter all new water connections which would result in charges being levied according to the measured tariff.
3. The Water Undertaker may install a meter at the premises where a buyer makes a change of use of the property or where the buyer uses water for:
   a. Watering the garden other than by hand (this includes the use of sprinklers).
   b. Automatically replenishing a pond or swimming pool with a capacity greater than 10,000 litres.

Received Date : 19 Aug 2009  Response Date : 22 Aug 2009
SURFACE WATER DRAINAGE CHARGES

17 Q: Is a surface water drainage charge payable?

A: Records confirm that a surface water drainage charge is payable for the property at £22 for each financial year.

1. Where surface water from a property does not drain to the public sewerage system no surface water drainage charges are payable.

2. Where surface water drainage charges are payable but if on inspection the buyer finds that the property is not connected for surface water drainage, the property may be eligible for rebate of the surface water drainage charge. Details can be obtained from the Sewerage Undertaker.

WATER METERS

18 Q: Please include details of the location of any water meter serving the property?

A: Records indicate that the property is not served by a water meter.

1. Where the property is not served by a water meter and the customer wishes to consider this method of charging they should contact:

RISK OF FLOODING DUE TO OVERLOADING PUBLIC SEWERS

21  Q: Is the dwelling house which is or forms part of the property at risk of internal flooding due to overloaded public sewers?

A: The property is not recorded as being at risk of internal flooding due to overloaded public sewers.

1. A sewer is “overloaded” when the flow from a storm is unable to pass through it due to a permanent problem (e.g. flat gradient, small diameter). Flooding as a result of temporary problems such as blockages, siltation, collapses and equipment or operational failures are excluded.

2. “Internal flooding” from the public sewers is defined as flooding, which enters a building or passes below a suspended floor. For reporting purposes, buildings are restricted to those normally occupied and used for residential, public, commercial, business or industrial purposes.

3. “At Risk” properties are those that the water company is required to include in the Regulatory Register that is reported annually to the Water Services Regulatory Authority. These are defined as properties that have suffered or are likely to suffer internal flooding from the public foul, combined or surface water sewers due to overloading of the sewerage system more frequently than the relevant reference period (either once or twice in ten years) as determined by the Sewerage Undertaker’s reporting procedure.

4. Flooding as a result of storm events proven to be exceptional and beyond the reference period of one in ten years are not included on the at Risk register.

5. Properties may be at risk of flooding but not included on the Register where flooding incidents have not been reported to the Sewerage Undertaker.

6. Public Sewers are defined as those for which the Sewerage Undertaker holds statutory responsibility under the Water Industry Act 1991.

7. It should be noted that flooding can occur from private sewers and drains which are not the responsibility of the Sewerage Undertaker. This report excludes flooding from the private sewers and drains and the Sewerage Undertaker makes no comment upon this matter.
RISK OF LOW WATER PRESSURE OR FLOW

22 Q: Is the property at risk of receiving low water pressure or flow?

A: Records confirm that the property is not recorded on a register kept by the water undertaker as being at risk of receiving low water pressure or flow.

1. The boundary of the property has been determined by reference to the Ordnance Survey record.

2. "Low water pressure" means water pressure below the regulatory reference level which is the minimum pressure when demand on the system is not abnormal.

3. Water Companies are required to include in the Regulatory Register that is reported annually to the Water Services Regulatory Authority properties receiving pressure below the reference level, provided that allowable exclusions do not apply (i.e. events which can cause pressure to temporarily fall below the reference level).

4. The reference level of service is a flow of 9 litres/minute at a pressure of 10 metres head on the customers' side of the main stop tap (mst). The reference level of service must be applied on the customers' side of a meter or any other company fittings that are on the customers' side of the main stop tap.

   The reference level applies to a single property. Where more than one property is served by a common service pipe, the flow assumed in the reference level must be appropriately increased to take account of the total number of properties served.

   For two properties, a flow of 18 litres/minute at a pressure of 10 metres head on the customers' side of the mst is appropriate. For three or more properties the appropriate flow should be calculated from the standard loadings provided in BS6700 or Institute of Plumbing handbook.

5. Allowable exclusions

   The Company is required to include in the Regulatory Register properties receiving pressure below the reference level, provided that allowable exclusions listed below do not apply.

6. Abnormal demand:

   This exclusion is intended to cover abnormal peaks in demand and not the daily, weekly or monthly peaks in demand which are normally expected.

   Companies should exclude from the reported DG2 figures properties which are affected by low pressure only on those days with the highest peak demands. During the report year companies may exclude, for each property, up to five days of low pressure caused by peak demand.

7. Planned maintenance:

   Companies should not report under DG2 low pressures caused by planned maintenance.

   It is not intended that companies identify the number of properties affected in each instance. However, companies must maintain sufficiently accurate records to verify that low pressure incidents that are excluded from DG2 because of planned maintenance are actually caused by maintenance.

8. One-off incidents:

   This exclusion covers a number of causes of low pressure; mains bursts; failures of company equipment (such as PRVs or booster pumps); firefighting; and Action by a third party. However, if problems of this type affect a property frequently, they cannot be classed as one-off events and further investigation will be required before they can be excluded.

9. Low pressure incidents of short duration:

   Properties affected by low pressures which only occur for a short period, and for which there is evidence that incidents of a longer duration would not occur during the course of the year, may be excluded from the reported DG2 figures.
WATER QUALITY ANALYSIS

23 Q: Please include details of a water quality analysis made by the water undertaker for the water supply zone in Respect of the most recent calendar year

A: The analysis confirmed that tests failed to meet the standards prescribed by the 2000 Regulations or the 2001 Regulations in relation to another substance or substances, please find a report attached.

1. Water companies have a duty to provide wholesome water that meets the standards of the Water Supply (Water Quality) Regulations 2000.
   However, the household is responsible for any deterioration in water quality that is a result of the domestic distribution system (the supply pipe and the plumbing within the property) that results in the standards not being met.

2. In England and Wales these Regulations implement the requirements of the European Drinking Directive 98/83/EC. The 2000 Regulations impose standards for a range of parameters, which are either health based to ensure the water is safe to drink or to ensure the water is aesthetically acceptable. They also require that drinking water should not contain any element, organism or substance (whether or not a parameter) at a concentration or value which would be detrimental to public health.

3. Water quality is normally tested at the tap used for domestic consumption normally the kitchen. However, the household is responsible for any of deterioration in water quality that is a result of the domestic distribution system (the supply pipe and the plumbing within the property) that results in the standards not being met.

4. If there are concerns that lead pipes within the property may be causing high levels of lead in your drinking water please contact your water company (give contact details) for further advice.

5. The water company undertakes a monitoring programme to establish water quality that includes random sampling from domestic properties. It will notify the consumers of any failures to meet the water quality standards that are due to the condition or maintenance of the domestic distribution system.

6. The data collected by the company is subject to external review by the drinking water inspectorate (DWI) and by local and health authorities. In addition to reviewing quality data the DWI also carry out audits during which any area of the company's operational can be examined.

7. If there are concerns that lead pipes within the property may be causing high levels of lead in your drinking water please contact the company (see below) for further advice.

WATER QUALITY STANDARDS

24 Q: Please include details of any departures, authorised by the Secretary of State under Part 6 of the 2000 Regulations from the provisions of Part 3 of those regulations.

A: There are no such authorised departures for the water supply zone.

1. Authorised departments are not permitted if the extent of the departure from the standard is likely to constitute a potential danger to human health.

2. Please contact your water company if you require further information.

SEWERAGE TREATMENT WORKS

25 Q: Please state the distance from the property to the nearest boundary of the nearest sewage treatment works.

A: The nearest sewage treatment works is 6.06 kilometres West of the property. The name of the sewage treatment works is SHOREHAM WTW, which is responsibility of Southern Water Services, Southern House, Capstone Road, Chatham, Kent ME5 7QA company.

1. The nearest sewage treatment works will not always be the sewage treatment works serving the catchment within which the property is situated.

2. The Sewerage undertaker’s records were inspected to determine the nearest sewage treatment works.

3. It should be noted therefore that there may be private sewage treatment works closer than the one detailed above that have not been identified.

Water Quality report for Southern Water quality supply zone S 507

The following samples failed during the calendar year ending 31/12/2008:-

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Parameter tested</th>
<th>No. of samples taken</th>
<th>No. of samples failed</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Aluminium</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Iron</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Please note these samples are NOT house specific. They refer to samples taken from a large water zone.

Random water sampling is carried out regularly from customer’s taps & the test results accumulated for each water supply zone. The chances of this result being from the actual search property address are very low.

Southern Water investigate all infringements of water quality standards thoroughly & take appropriate action to resolve any problems. All failures are followed up & re-tested.

If there was any risk to public health from the quality of drinking water supplied the Company would inform customers immediately & advise them not to drink the water until the risk had been removed.

Key facts on water quality

Here are some key facts on substances that customers may be concerned about.
For more detailed information visit www.southernwater.co.uk or telephone 0845 278 0845

Aluminium

Aluminium occurs naturally in the environment & can also come from cooking utensils & some treatment works.

Coliform bacteria

These bacteria are usually harmless in themselves but if present can show that there is a possibility of contamination of drinking water. Some of the bacteria we find are from dirty taps in houses but in all cases where bacteria are found we respond urgently to ensure supplies are safe.

Iron

Iron is found naturally in some underground water. Some companies install treatment to remove it where levels are high. It does not cause health problems.
Nickel

Nickel occurs widely in the environment & is a natural constituent of food & water. Traces found in drinking water often emanate from coatings on modern tap fittings.

Taste

A panel regularly conducts taste tests on drinking water against a standard. This may reveal a "tcp" chlorine taste, metallic taste or bitterness due to copper plumbing, a plastic taste from plastic pipework etc.

Trihalomethanes

Trihalomethanes can occur as a by product of chlorination when organic substances such as humus are also present.

6. Search Reports

Important Consumer Protection Information

The Search Code provides protection for homebuyers, sellers, conveyancers and mortgage lenders, who rely on property search reports carried out on residential property within the United Kingdom. It sets out minimum standards which organisations compiling and/or selling search reports have to meet. This information is designed to introduce the Search Code to you.

By giving you this information, your search organisation is confirming that they keep to the principles of the Search Code. This provides important protection for you.

The Code's main commitments

The Search Code's key commitments say that search organisations will:

- Provide search reports which include the most up-to-date available information when compiled and an accurate report of the risks associated with the property.
- Deal promptly with queries raised on search reports.
- Handle complaints speedily and fairly.
- At all times maintain adequate and appropriate insurance cover to protect you.
- Act with integrity and ensure that all search services comply with relevant laws, regulations and industry standards

Keeping to the Search Code

How search organisations maintain compliance with the Search Code is monitored independently by the Property Codes Compliance Board (PCCB). If you have a query or complaint about your search, you should raise it directly with the search firm, and if appropriate ask for your complaint to be considered under their formal internal complaints procedure. If you remain dissatisfied with the firm's final resolution after your complaint has been formally considered or if the firm has exceeded the response timescales, you may refer your complaint to the Independent Property Codes Adjudication Scheme (IPCAS). IPCAS can award compensation of up to £5,000 to you if it finds that you have suffered loss as a result of your search provider failing to keep to the Code.
