DESCRIPTION

The building plot offered for development is approximately 0.364 of an acre (0.147 hectares), and has an asking price of offers in the region of £65,000. Located within the peaceful coastal village of Laide, it is part of a magnificent peninsula in the Scottish Highlands. This is a beautiful setting with truly stunning scenery, and ideal for hill-walkers and lovers of wildlife, including deer, goats, seals, otters and a wide variety of garden birds.

For those with a green thumb, the land's quality is sure to captivate any avid gardener. With ample space to cultivate your own botanical oasis, this plot offers a canvas for you to design a garden of your dreams.

Whether you are looking to build a permanent residence or a holiday retreat, this plot in Laide is a gem waiting to be discovered.

LOCATION

The situation of the plot is most pleasant, with views of the Summer Isles, the mountains of Suilven and Quinag, as well as the impressive mountain range of An Teallach. For nature lovers there are seals and otters nearby, occasionally pine-martens and a variety of birds.

Laide is a rural community located on the west coast of Scotland. The village benefits from a church and general store/post office. The villagers also benefit from the services of a fish van, butchers van and mobile library.

There are several local tourist attractions nearby, including the famous Inverewe Gardens approximately 8 miles south. Nursery and primary schooling is available in the neighbouring village of Aultbea and secondary schooling is available at Gairloch, where you will find more shops, restaurants, outdoor shop, chemist, newsagent, hairdresser, bank, post office, filling station, churches, a heritage museum and a golf course. From the pier, fishing and whale watching trips can be arranged. There are walks of all standards in the area, ranging from Munros to gentle strolls along beaches and rivers. River and loch fishing is available at certain times of the year and permits are sold in local shops. Laide and the surrounding area is an ideal location for hillwalking, golf, cycling, fishing, bird-watching or just relaxing. Further outdoor pursuits available locally for the more active include rock climbing, abseiling and pony trekking. There is a swimming pool at Poolewe and Beinn Eithe nature reserve is approximately 30 miles south of Laide.

The Highland capital city of Inverness is approximately 74 miles by road and offers all city facilities which include links by road, rail and air to further destinations. There are also regular bus connections. Ullapool is approximately 42 miles distant.

SERVICES

The plot is serviced with mains electricity, public water connection and telephone connection at the site. A sewer treatment tank will be required and an infiltration system test has already been carried out.
