LOCATION

The historic fishing and conservation village of Pittenweem is set within the heart of the beautiful and sought-after East Neuk of Fife, on Scotland's East Coast. Home to the now famous Arts Festival, Pittenweem is a vibrant, picturesque village that has excellent local amenities including a village store, shops, galleries, a primary school and Doctors' surgery. There are caf  s, pubs and restaurants including the Clock Tower Caf  , the Dory Bistro and Gallery, and the West End Bar. Secondary schooling for the village is available at Waid Academy in Anstruther, a little over a mile away, where there is a Co-operative supermarket, as well as a further range of local facilities and an award-winning fish and chip shop. Private schooling as well as excellent retail, dining and leisure can be found in the historic town of St Andrews, just under eleven miles away. Edinburgh airport is 47 miles away and rail services are available from Leuchars or Markinch, both within 20 miles.

Fife's beautiful and varied coastline includes several good sandy beaches such as Kingsbarns, Crail, Elie and St. Andrews with direct access to the popular Fife Coastal Path which winds its way through Pittenweem harbour. The Graig Miller Seafood Restaurant in nearby St Monans and The Cellar in Anstruther are both award-winning restaurants, specialising in local seafood, while The Peat Inn, about 10 miles away, is considered to be one of the best restaurants in Scotland. A wide range of recreational facilities including cycling, walking, sailing, riding and golf with many highly rated courses within easy reach including courses at Anstruther, Crail, Kingsbarns, St. Andrews Bay, Elie, Leven, Ladybank, Lundin Links and the ancient and historic "Home of Golf" in St. Andrews where the Old Course is located.

GARDENS & GARAGE

No.1 Backgate has a beautiful private garden that will delight all who view! A beautifully finished terraced sandstone walled garden providing a high degree of privacy and evoking a sunny Mediterranean charm and feel, offering a sanctuary from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. This expansive space allows for various seating areas and elegant alfresco dining. Steps lead down to a paved patio with established borders, flowering plants, and small trees, creating an idyllic retreat that is both peaceful and private—a sanctuary from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

The garden is paved directly to rear. Access to garden from South Loan. Access to a large garage from the garden area. There's a substantial timber built shed/workshop that provides light and power measuring approx 5.97m x 3.63m (19'7" x 11'10"). A monobloc drive-in from Charles Street leads to a generous garage of approx 5.27m x 2.84m (17'3" x 9'3") with light & power.
