Stonegate

Land Lane, Bingley, BD16 4SA

Asking Price £775,000

A superb detached residence of exceptional quality located in a highly sought after location, just off Lady Lane in Bingley. Located in a gated complex of other high calibre homes and benefiting from a superior plot, the substantial home offers the most discerning purchasers an excellent degree of versatility.

Comprising; access in to the gated courtyard, entrance into entrance hall, main lounge, dining room, a very well equipped open plan kitchen with central island and utility room off, a further sitting/family space a ground floor cloakroom, and a cinema room. To the first floor are four excellent double bedrooms all with fitted furniture, a shower room and sauna and an impressive house bathroom. The master bedrooms benefits from an en suite shower room with Jack and Jill sinks. To the second floor are two further double bedrooms, with one currently used as a home office and a further WC. Externally to the front is ample parking for several motor vehicles, while to the rear are private gardens with many mature trees and shrubs, a good size patio area and covered seating.

Bingley town centre is approximately 1 mile distant with its range of shops, amenities, recreational areas and well respected primary and secondary schools. Stonegate is regarded as one of Bingley's premier addresses, featuring many, well-established, and modern properties on the periphery of Bingley Town Centre. The locality is surrounded by scenic countryside, affording impressive views towards the upper Aire Valley. The location is considered to be within daily commuting distance of many Airedale and Wharfedale business centres.
