The Property

This superb, spacious two double-bed apartment forms part of an exclusive development in semi-rural Mobberley and has been superbly refurbished by the current owner to now provide stunning, bright, hi-spec accommodation with under floor heating throughout. Situated on the first floor of the modern development, the property enjoys fantastic access to Knutsford, Alderley Edge and beyond, with countryside walks and pubs on your door step. The property itself comes immaculately presented and must be viewed. Particular mention must be made of the stunning, hi-spec kitchen with its range of integrated appliances and quartz work surfaces.

The property sits in beautiful, maintained communal grounds with various lawned areas and spots for walking or relaxing. A communal car park provides allocated off-road parking, plus visitors' spaces.

Directions

From the centre of Knutsford proceed along King Edward Road (A50) turning left at the traffic lights passing the railway station. At the next set of lights turn left up Hollow Lane and onto Mobberley Road. Leave Knutsford town centre and proceed straight through the village of Mobberley. When the road becomes Hall Lane, and after passing Barclay Park Nursing Home on your left, turn next right onto Faulkners Lane, just prior to reaching the Bird in Hand public house. Continue down the lane passing The Frozen Mop public house where the development will be seen immediately after on the right-hand side.
