The Property

This lovely, modern penthouse apartment forms part of an exclusive development located in the heart of Knutsford Town Centre. This home has been loving improved and updated by the current owner. The property sits in an enviable position at the quieter end of King Street but with the shops, bars and restaurants on the door step, and Tatton Park just across the road. The apartment itself comes immaculately presented throughout. Particular mention must be made of the stunning, bright open-plan living dining kitchen, with windows to two elevations offering incredible views across Tatton Park and the Moor, the recently renovated bathroom suite as well as the full head-height loft perfect for storage and potential conversion subject to relevant permissions.

The property is approached via communal grounds and car park offering off-road parking. A single garage provides further parking or storage.
