The Property

This well presented first floor, two bedroom apartment forms part of a popular development located in the heart of Knutsford Town Centre. The property sits in an enviable elevated position but with the shops, bars and restaurants on the door step, and Tatton Park just across the road. The apartment itself comes well presented throughout. Particular mention must be made of the large, bright living room with windows overlooking The Moor flooding the room with natural daylight, the mater bedroom with dual aspect and fitted wardrobes as well as the generous proportions found throughout.

The property is approached via communal grounds and car park offering off-road parking. A single garage provides further parking or storage.

Directions

From Irlams office proceed down King Street and just prior to the entrance to Tatton Park turn right down Drury Lane where the entrance to Ruskin Court will soon be seen on your right hand side.
