The Property

This simply stunning barn has been newly converted and is now fitted to the highest specification, with zoned under-floor heating, air source heat pump and heat recovery system throughout. Particular mention must be made of the bespoke Smallbone kitchen, designed by Kelly Hoppen and fitted with a range of Gaggenau appliances including steam ovens. Situated in a beautiful setting in a quaint backwater of rural Mobberley, this home provides a fantastic opportunity for country living, within touching distance of Knutsford, Alderley Edge and Wilmslow.

The property is approached via a gravel car park and pathway with passive courtesy lighting and a gated front garden laid mainly to lawn and bordered with attractive shrubs and hedges. The stone-paved patio provides the perfect opportunity for al fresco dining.

To the rear is a gated courtyard ideal for muddy boots and bikes.

Directions
