Superb opportunity to purchase a rarely available detached cottage in the pretty West Coast village of Scourie. Traditional cottage located on a quiet road in the village, a short stroll from the shop and the pier. The flexible accommodation comprises: Porch, Hall, Living Room, Kitchen/Diner, Inner Vestibule, Utility Store, 2 Bedrooms and Shower Room. Arch Cottage benefits from double glazing and electric heating. Low maintenance garden ground to front with two large wooden sheds. A large variety of birds visit the garden, such as redpolls, woodpeckers, gold finches, siskins, etc. Located in the North West Geopark on the scenic NC500 Tourist Route in the Scottish Highlands. Carpets and curtains are included. White goods and some furniture available separately. Viewing is highly recommended.

Scourie is in an area of true scenic beauty situated on the NC 500 Tourist Route. There is a beautiful sandy beach with a jetty. Also in Scourie there is a Spar Shop, Hotel, primary school and petrol station. Additional facilities can be found in the village of Ullapool, approximately 43 miles away, where facilities include a supermarket, Post Office, hotels, restaurants and an excellent range of bespoke retail outlets. Ullapool also provides a gateway to the Inner Isles and is a productive fishing port. Education is provided at Scourie Primary School or nearby Kinlochbervie High School, to which bus transportation is provided daily. Inverness, the main business and commercial centre in the Highlands is approximately 94 miles away and offers extensive shopping, leisure and entertainment facilities along with excellent road, rail and air links to the South and beyond. It is an ideal spot for hill walking with a distinct array of mountains. Also idyllic for loch and sea fishing, shooting, stalking. Nearby Handa Island, famous for its puffins, bonxies, fulmars, kittiwakes etc, is a short boat trip away.
