The flexible accommodation comprises: Conservatory, Hall, Living Room, Sun Room, Office, Kitchen, 5 Bedrooms (3 En-suite) and Bathroom. Double glazed, oil fired central heating and a wood burning stove. Large outbuilding with tool shed, garage and generous storage. Carport, log store, two polytunnels and two wooden sheds are all included. Extensive garden with a sheltered patio. Located in the North West Geopark on the scenic NC500 Tourist Route in the Scottish Highlands. New owners could develop the business by increasing the amenities offered or could convert the property into a generous residential dwelling. All guest house furniture, white goods, linen, crockery, kitchenware and fittings are included in the sale. Viewing is highly recommended.

Scourie is in an area of true scenic beauty situated on the NC500 Tourist Route. There is a beautiful sandy beach with a jetty. Also in Scourie there is a Spar Shop, Hotel, primary school and petrol station. Additional facilities can be found in the village of Ullapool, approximately 43 miles away, where facilities include a supermarket, Post Office, hotels, restaurants and an excellent range of bespoke retail outlets. Ullapool also provides a gateway to the Inner Isles and is a productive fishing port. Education is provided at Scourie Primary School or nearby Kinlochbervie High School, to which bus transportation is provided daily. Inverness, the main business and commercial centre in the Highlands is approximately 94 miles away and offers extensive shopping, leisure and entertainment facilities along with excellent road, rail and air links to the South and beyond. It is an ideal spot for hill walking with a distinct array of mountains. Also idyllic for loch and sea fishing, shooting, stalking. Nearby Handa Island, famous for its puffins, bonxies, fulmars, kittiwakes etc, is a short boat trip away.
