3 Steele Avenue, Chesterfield S43 3HQ

Council Tax Band: A

Located in Inkersall, the property is well located close for the M1, good links to the historic market town of chesterfield and Staveley. Closer to hand local shops, takeaways, parks and walks are within easy reach.

The property has off street parking to the front. To the rear is a lawn area and patio area, with a large plot completed by the side garden area giving great potential for outbuildings and extensions.

The property has a large lounge to the left hand side of the property, with storage under the stairs. To the right is the kitchen with fitted cabinets and worktops. To the rear is further storage and a utility room.

On the 1st floor there is a generous master bedroom complete with storage over the stairs, that has been replastered and painted throughout. There are a further two good sized bedrooms both with storage and a shower room and separate Wc.

The property requires a scheme of modernisation but has great potential, it has gas central heating with a combi boiler and is a freehold and in council tax band A.
