Council Tax Band: B

Located in the sought-after village of Wingerworth on the edge of Chesterfield, this well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached home offers a fantastic blend of space, practicality and potential. Set back from the road, the property benefits from off-street parking for multiple vehicles, a car port, and a detached garage, ensuring secure storage and everyday convenience.

Inside, the ground floor opens into a bright, open-plan lounge and dining space, perfect for modern living and entertaining. Patio doors lead directly out to a fully enclosed rear garden with a dedicated seating area – ideal for relaxing outdoors in the warmer months. The kitchen is positioned to the side of the dining space and offers the opportunity to reconfigure into a spacious kitchen-diner, subject to personal preference.

Upstairs, the home features two double bedrooms, with the front room benefiting from built-in wardrobes, and a well-proportioned single bedroom that would suit a child, guest room, or home office. The family bathroom completes the first floor and offers functional space with scope for modern updates.

This property sits in a quiet residential area of Wingerworth – a village well regarded for its community feel, green surroundings and excellent local amenities. Residents enjoy easy access to countryside walks, local shops, reputable schools and pubs, while Chesterfield town centre is just a short drive away. Chesterfield itself offers direct rail links to Sheffield, Derby and London, strong commuter connections via the M1, and a growing town centre with new retail and leisure developments.

The property tenure is freehold and is in council tax band B.
