DESCRIPTION

Located on the popular Black Isle close to the hamlet of Tore and a short distance to Munlochy, this attractive three bed detached stone built villa constructed over one hundred years ago, offers an ideal opportunity for anyone looking for a comfortable home nestled within large well maintained garden grounds. The property which benefits from electric heating, is double glazed, has off road parking and only by viewing will one appreciate the generous accommodation Station House has to offer.

LOCATION

The Black Isle has become one of the most popular areas of the Highlands in which to live. The nearby hamlet of Tore being a short distance from Station House, benefits from a petrol station with a well stocked shop as well as an excellent farm shop close by. Beaulieu, Muir of Ord and Dingwall all have excellent shopping facilities, lovely restaurants and a regular train service to and from the Highland Capital of Inverness. The village of Munlochy has its own primary school, grocery store and highly regarded restaurant. A few miles along the coast brings you to Fortrose where a wider range of shops and services can be found including, a butchers, supermarket, top class restaurant, takeaway outlets, leisure centre, GP surgery and pharmacy. At Rosemarkie you will find a wide bay and one of the finest beaches on the Moray Firth Coast.

GARDENS

The beautiful gardens here extending to approx half an acre, are laid to well kept lawns with a lovely selection of mature plants and shrubs providing an array of all year round colour. Enclosed with fencing, the gardens also benefit from mature fruit trees and bushes all adding to the external appeal of this desirable country home. The gravelled driveway provides off road parking and access to the two large timber sheds which provide external storage.

ENTRANCE VESTIBULE
