Location

The property is located in a prominent position in the bustling town of Clitheroe fronting Moor Lane.

Moor Lane is the main arterial route through Clitheroe town centre with other businesses in the immediate vicinity including Sainsbury's, The Emporium, Holmes Mill, and ALDI.

Clitheroe is an affluent market town and has a growing population in excess of 14,000 residents being in the borough of Ribble Valley, approximately ten miles from the towns of Blackburn and Burnley, and is within close proximity to Clitheroe Castle.

Description

A prominent Grade II listed building in the popular market town of Clitheroe.

Understood to have been built around 1839 the premises was originally constructed as a national school however, in more recent years it has traded as a electronics manufacturer before undergoing a renovation by the former Piccolinos restaurant.

Internally the property is set over two floors with a large commercial kitchen, bar, and spacious seating area to the ground floor, with additional seating and managers office to the upper. Both floors have access to W/C facilities (see attached floorplan).

To the exterior of the property there is a large elevated seating area with an additional wooden patio, offered together with a yard to the rear and parking to the side elevation.
