GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The subject property comprises a modern brick construction bungalow.

FEATURES

- LARGE GARDEN

Twelve Ash Lodge,
Stoneleigh Road,
Baginton,
CV8 3BA

LOCATION

The subject property is located off Stoneleigh Road within Baginton, a Village in Warwickshire, but has a common border with the City of Coventry. Baginton Village is four miles south of Coventry City Centre and is approximately seven miles north of Leamington Spa.

Baginton is home to Coventry Airport, which lies just southeast of the Village. First opened in 1936 as Baginton Aerodrome, it has been used for general aviation, flight training, and commercial freight and passenger flights. The Midland Air Museum on Rowley Road is adjacent to the northern boundary of Coventry Airport.

The M6 is to the north east of the subject property with the A46 and the A45 (outer ring-road to Coventry) easily accessed, along with both the M40 and M6, located respectively to the south-west and north-east of the subject property.

DESCRIPTION

The subject property comprises a modern brick construction bungalow which was originally constructed as an ancillary residential dwelling in connection with the ongoing garden centre and plant nursery which is attached to the rear of the subject site. The property was originally constructed with an agricultural tie due to the commercial nature of the site.

The property is set over the ground floor only and provides for a main entrance area, three bedrooms, one with an ensuite, separate shower room, kitchen and living room together with utility areas. a main bathroom, front garden room and a UPVC double glazed conservatory to the rear. There is also a large modern garage to the rear of the site.

The property is of modern brick construction beneath a pitched interlocking concrete tiled roof covering. The property has timber fascia's, soffits, PVC rainwater goods and all windows are UPVC double glazed throughout. The site has a privately accessed, gated and gravel driveway which links with a tarmac surfaced driveway providing access to the commercial areas of the site. The property also incorporates a large garden.
