Description

Former Day Care facility.

The property comprises two linked former detached houses extending to approximately 6,986 sq. ft. G.I.A. approx.

The property has been altered and extended over the years, including the addition of a glazed entrance porch and a relatively large non-original two-storey rear extension. Internally, the property is divided into multiple rooms and includes kitchen and bathroom facilities. The property also has two staircases and a lift.

The site includes a hard surfaced driveway to the front of the property, providing a separate entrance and exit for vehicle access and off street car parking. The property benefits from a large rear garden, which includes several mature trees. There is also a detached brick built boiler room to the rear.
