ABOUT THE HOME

This well presented three-bedroom split-level period conversion offers a modern finish across thoughtfully arranged living space. Set over the first and second floors, it features a bright open-plan reception room and kitchen with integrated appliances and tall sash windows. The first floor features the large principal bedroom with en suite bathroom, while the second floor comprises two double bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom. Built-in storage provides added practicality throughout. The property also benefits from access to shared outside space.

Landor Road is located between Clapham and Brixton and offers easy access to local shops, cafés and bars. Clapham High Street and Brixton are within walking distance, with Clapham North Underground (0.3 miles), Stockwell (0.5 miles) and Clapham High Street Overground (0.3 miles) providing excellent transport links.
