Cowes

Cowes is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the waterfront.

Within the High Street there are two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries. Historical Northwood House & Park hosts weddings, fairs, concerts and conferences with outside space to enjoy walks. The chain ferry, known locally as 'The Floaty', links Cowes to East Cowes where the Red Funnel car and passenger ferry to the mainland is situated.

Approaching The Property

Set on an elevated position looking out towards the Solent, this large family home has a blocked paved driveway leading up to the sizable double garage with its electric roller door. Within is a mezzanine floor with ample storage space for paddleboards, inflatable dingies and other water sports equipment, below this the garage has power and light and has ample room for two vehicles. There is a low wall surrounding the fore of the property with black iron railings on top and brick pillars support the above balconies that form a shelter over the two entrances into this immaculate home.

Ground Floor

This immaculately presented home is spacious and bright in every area of the property. The decor is light and neutral throughout this pristine property. The hallway is central to the home with a central staircase turning upwards to the first floor with a modern cloakroom and additional storage space situated off this entrance area. Within the hallway is a large storage cupboard, useful for coats and outside apparel and leading off is the sitting room, separate dining room and the kitchen. The double aspect sitting room is extremely bright with light flooding in from the bay window at the fore of the property and the double doors that lead to the conservatory at the rear. The conservatory has a tiled floor with electric underfloor heating beneath, with further double doors leading out to the paved patio area, is the perfect place to enjoy the sunny garden and look out to all its beautiful flora. The large dining room too looks out onto this vista and also has double patio doors for easy access to outside.

The kitchen is extremely well appointed with masses of storage space and the light speckled granite worksurface, and upstands, horseshoeing around this spacious room. Above and below are the cream base and wall units that have an integral fridge freezer, double oven, dishwasher, microwave, gas hob and extractor fan. A complementing reflective splash back is behind the hob and contrasting aqua tiles flow around the room above the counter top with low level lighting completing the room.

Off the main kitchen is a utility area with a long wooden worksurface that flows over more storage units and the freestanding washing machine and tumble dryer and a 'Belfast' sink nestled within. There is also a cupboard housing the hot water cylinder. Following on through this room leads to the purpose built office space which is bright and sunny with a loft hatch, a stable door into the garden and opposite, another entrance door to the front of the property.

First Floor

On this floor are four double bedrooms, two being ensuite and two with a balcony as well as a family bathroom. As with the lower floor, all decor is soft and neutral and is pristine.

The principal bedroom is extremely large with an ensuite shower room, two double built in wardrobes and a balcony looking out towards the Solent. The other double bedroom at the front of the property also has a balcony from which the late afternoon sun can be enjoyed. The two generous double bedrooms, that overlook the rear of the property, both have two built in double cupboards and one of these bedrooms has an ensuite shower room.

Garden Room

Set at the bottom of the front lawn is a superb purpose built and generously sized garden room. Timber clad inside and out, with a rear door into the garden and double bi-fold doors opening out towards the Solent views, this welcoming and relaxing room is perfect to watch the ever changing seascape all year round.
