Grade II Listed lodge with two bedrooms

Nestled within the scenic beauty of Bonchurch, this Grade II listed Lodge presents a rare opportunity to own a piece of history in one of Isle of Wight's most enchanting villages. This period home has authentic charm with offering two bedrooms, two bath/shower rooms and a delightful living space exuding warmth and character. This house is perfect to move into and use as a holiday home or permanent residence with the bonus of two parking spaces and being chain free.

Interior

Step into this Grade II listed property and be transported back in time while enjoying the comforts of modern living. Filled with many original and unusual features this lodge has a cottage feel with diamond glazed cast iron windows and has a charm all of its own. The lodge built in 1857 as the gate house to the nearby Manor House occupied by the head gardener and house keeper and where the outside cave area was used as a wash house.

Ground Floor:

The hallway and kitchen feature exquisite period patterned tiled flooring, adding to the home's character. The kitchen, bathed in natural light filtering through the cast iron window, has the original cream-colored wooden dresser in situ that complements the wall and base units and deep wood work surfaces which creates a harmonious blend of old-world charm and contemporary functionality. The range cooker with gas hob and electric oven sits in a recess with extractor above. Adjacent to the kitchen, a utility area offers convenience with space and plumbing for a washing machine. The doorway leads out to the courtyard, perfect for enjoying the tranquility of this historic setting.

The property boasts a charming sitting room, which includes a feature fireplace, offering a cosy retreat after a day of exploring the surrounding natural beauty. Providing practicality, this floor is completed with a shower room and wc.

First Floor:

The master bedroom exudes elegance with its feature original fireplace and ensuite tiled bathroom, complete with the original cast iron, claw foot bath. A second bedroom provides additional comfort and versatility and is currently used as an office and second sitting room.

In Summary:

Embrace the timeless elegance of this Grade II listed Lodge and experience the quintessential charm of Bonchurch living. With its meticulous renovation and thoughtful preservation of original features, this period home offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of Isle of Wight's history. Don't miss your chance to call this enchanting property your own.

Outside Space

There is a courtyard at the rear of the property which is accessed from the house and through a wrought iron gateway. Two secure outbuildings built into the rocks, one originally used as a wash house and are now repurposed as a storage room, a separate workshop with lights and an open recessed area for further storage. A purpose built wooden storage area houses the refuse bins. The driveway was relaid in 2009.

Bonchurch

Bonchurch is a destination that seamlessly blends natural beauty, historical charm and a tranquil atmosphere, making it an appealing haven for those seeking a unique village experience on the Isle of Wight. Mentioned in the Domesday Book, this quaint village has both a pond and churches and residents can enjoy leisurely strolls through the village, exploring its history and scenic coastal paths.
