Guide Price £585,000

A beautiful characterful three bedroom property converted from a church with the original Gothic style window looking out over Cowes. Three bedrooms, outside area and parking for one vehicle makes this a unique and fabulous home.

Three bedroom converted church in Old Town Cowes

This unique property, originally built as a Sunday School and latterly used as the Congregational Church, was converted in 2015 to provide a stunning three storey house. Immaculately presented, this 3 bedroom period property has been converted to a high standard and seamlessly blends modern comfort with original architectural charms.

Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the unique features, including original stunning gothic feature window in the living area, vaulted ceilings and exposed wooden beams. The property also benefits from its own private outside area and off road parking, a real bonus in the heart of Cowes. This is a rare opportunity to own a piece of architectural heritage in this coveted Island location.

Outside

To the front of the property is a covered private patio area with room for a table and chairs, ideal for alfresco dining. Further patio area leading to the front door with gravelled borders. There is off road parking for one car, a great bonus for a property a stones throw from Cowes town centre.

Cowes

Cowes is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the seafront.

'The Old Town' is set on, and around, the High Street where you can find two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries. Historical Northwood House & Park hosts weddings, fairs, concerts and conferences with outside space to enjoy walks. The chain ferry, known locally as 'The Floaty', links Cowes to East Cowes where the Red Funnel car and passenger ferry to the mainland is situated.
