3 double bedroom semi detached Victorian home

Nestled in the heart of a central area with excellent travel links, this very well presented three-storey character residence is a testament to classic elegance and contemporary requirements. Renovated and refurbished to a good standard, this home seamlessly blends period charm with modern convenience, with three reception rooms, modern kitchen, cloakrooms on all levels and a great snug on the lower ground floor that could be an office or further bedroom. With off road parking for two vehicles and rear garden, this is ready to move into.

Interior

Boasting timeless charm this home exudes character with its traditional facade and elegant proportions. Original internal doors, high ceilings and picture rails can be found throughout. Arranged over three levels, this property offers generous living spaces designed for modern lifestyles. With three bedrooms, three receptions, a kitchen, cloakrooms on all levels and a family bathroom, there's ample room for family living and entertaining guests. Many period features have been preserved, while others remain concealed, offering the new owner the opportunity to reveal them and add their own personal touch.

Ground Floor

Enter through the high, bright and airy entrance hall with low panelling decorated in soft warm contemporary tones, decorative corbels, column radiators and light wood laminate flooring. The staircase, with its turned spindles and newel posts, is a lovely focal point.

The ground floor boasts a games room with a bay window and a log burner nestled in the chimney recess, creating a cosy atmosphere for gatherings. The modern kitchen features dove grey wall and base units, integral appliances, a gas range cooker, stylish tiled splashback and a separate breakfast bar. A large sitting room offers built-in storage and shelving, with a log burner on a slate hearth providing warmth and ambiance.

Lower Ground Floor

Descend to the lower ground floor, where you'll find a cloakroom, a laundry room with space and plumbing for washing machine and tumble dryer, and a snug with instant access to the garden. An attractive exposed brick wall gives character to this level and has its own kitchen area with cupboards and sink. A door leads to a storage room that could potentially be extended under the ground floor. This floor offers versatility for use as a self-contained bedroom, office area or additional living space.

First Floor

This level features three spacious double bedrooms, each exuding its own unique charm and offering ample space for rest and relaxation. The principal bedroom boasts generous proportions and an abundance of built-in wardrobes providing ample storage space. A stunning feature fireplace adds warmth and character to this elegant room

Both remaining bedrooms on this floor are generously sized and thoughtfully appointed. Each features built-in cupboards for added convenience, with the mid bedroom boasting its own charming feature fireplace, adding a touch of character to the space.

Indulge in relaxation in the family bathroom, which features a classic claw-foot tub. A separate cloakroom is steeped in history. Papered with original newspapers found in the house that date back to the 1930s, this unique feature adds a touch of nostalgia and character to the home.

Exterior

Step outside to the delightful easily maintained garden, with its garden store complete with power and light. The porcelain tiled patio adjacent to the house is a lovely area to relax and enjoy the peace and quiet. Between these two areas is mainly lawn with some flower beds.

The fore of the property is block paved with parking for two vehicles and a storm canopy over the main entrance door.

Cowes

Cowes is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the waterfront.

Within the High Street there are two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries. Historical Northwood House & Park hosts weddings, fairs, concerts and conferences with outside space to enjoy walks. The chain ferry links Cowes to East Cowes where the Red Funnel car and passenger ferry to the mainland is situated.
